MEMPHIS.

The Hail Storm.

MEMPHIS, May 2.—The hail storm yesterday and Saturday did immense damage to the crops and fruits in Mississippi.

DID NOT SUFFER.

Rich Deer Creek Valley, in Bolivar and Washington counties, Mississippi, did not suffer from the crevasse, as was feared. Deer Creek carried off the water with little damage. The work of raising the bed of the Little Rock Railroad above the overflow has been commenced.

NEGRO TROUBLES.

The Avalanche's Little Rock special last night says that serious troubles are reported in Chicot county, the largest negro district in the State. Just prior to his late election as Senator, Governor Clayton appointed Senator J. M. Mason, colored, of Chicot county, Probate Judge, as it is alleged, to secure his vote for Senatorship, but just at the heels of the session Governor Clayton appointed Major Ragland, of Jefferson county, to that position, and under Clayton's instructions, the Senate refused to take up and act on Mr. Mason's nomination, and by that means it was expected to get rid of him, but Mason went home and took possession of the office, and the colored men made Ragland leave the county. To add to this the Governor recently appointed Conway Barbour, colored, recently imported from Cincinnati, and a member of the House from Lafayette, as assessor of Chicot county, ignoring the claims of all colored residents of that county. This incensed the negroes still more, and when Barbour went down he only remained two days, the negroes telling him that it would be better for his health to make himself scarce. The negroes there are reported to be on the point of an outbreak and should the Governor attempt to foist these men on them by force there will be trouble. Mason and Representative Wood (colored) are now here to see the Governor on the subject.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.

A shooting affray occurred to-night at the corner of Main and Jefferson streets, between Dan Marrigan and David Mallere, Jr., in which the latter was shot in the right side and probably mortally wounded. Marrigan was arrested. The difficulty originated in a game of cards.

THE SPANISH CLAIMS.

The formalities necessary to be arranged to carry out the Convention made last winter with Spain by General Sickles for a Commission to sit in this city for the determination of the claims of American citizens against the Spanish government, growing out of the insurrection in Cuba, are being rapidly pushed forward. The time for the meeting will be fixed at as early a date as possible. This Commission will be unlike the Mexican Commission in this—that there are no counter claims to be brought against this government.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis for the past twenty-four hours. The barometer still continues falling at San Francisco with a decided increase of temperature. It has remained stationary in the Rocky mountains with a rising temperature. The pressure has risen in the Eastern States. The clear and clearing weather in the Eastern and Middle States is now being rapidly succeeded by clouds and light rain which now prevail east of the Mississippi. Northeast winds continue to prevail on the Lakes and southerly winds in the gulf.

Probabilities—It is very probable that cloudy and perhaps rainy weather will on Wednesday be experienced at San Francisco. Increased northeast winds with rain are probable for the Lakes. Cloudy weather with light rains along the Atlantic coast and fresh southerly winds on the gulf.

CHICAGO.

Explosion.

CHICAGO, May 2.—An explosion occurred this morning in the new gas works, corner of Crosby and Hobbie streets, North Division. The explosion is supposed to have originated in some defect in the metre. The north end of the building, which was constructed of brick, was blown out, some of the material being hurled a long distance. The rest of the building was badly shattered, involving a loss of four thousand dollars. The office, in which was George Holloway, clerk, and George Sailor, was blown to pieces, and both men were injured. The explosion was felt several blocks distant, and in the building in proximity to the works the windows were shattered and the glass sent flying in every direction.

RETURNED.

George A. Miller special agent of the Post-office department has just returned from a trip over that portion of Illinois, lying on the Mississippi River, between Quincy and Alton, Michigan, which had not before been inspected for nearly 20 years. The condition of the Postal service was found to be in confusion and irregular. At Edwardsville he arrested a wood chopper named Benson for taking advantage of the knowledge of the receipt of a letter by a confiding friend and abstracting money. Benson is now in jail at Decatur. Mr Miller made the arrest of another ingenious citizen who had blunderingly forged a money order for a considerable amount.

THE TYNSDALE TRAGEDY.

The coroner's jury summoned to investigate the Sharon Tyndale tragedy after a three days session at Springfield and a thorough examination of all witnesses, have ended their labors without discovering the author of the crime. Resolutions were passed entirely clearing a man named Bernard Sissner who was arrested on suspicion at Quincy, of all knowledge of the matter further than any other traveller would have possessed under similar circumstances.

RAILROAD CHANGE.

The Cedar Rapids, Iowa, stockholders of the Burlington, Cedar Rapids and Minnesota Railroad have purchased the south end of that road, from Burlington to Cedar Rapids, paving $500,000. This brings the road between these points all under one control, and locates the railroad shops at Cedar Rapids.

Cyrille Dion, the billiardist, having failed to make a match in this city, left Chicago last evening for New York.

NASHVILLE.

The Races.

NASHVILLE, TENN., May 2.—Most of the horses in attendance at the Memphis races last week have arrived, increasing the number in training for the Nashville Blood Horse Association races next week to seventy.

FORCIBLE EJECTION.

On complaint of George Carter and wife, colored, Major Captain, a conductor on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad and others were indicted in the Federal Court, now sitting here, for forcibly ejecting them from the ladies' car on said road. The defendant's counsel moved to quash the indictment. After argument of the motion, Judge Trigg decided in favor of the defendants, and they were discharged, on the ground that a common carrier had a right to regulate their own affairs. He decided further that the plaintiff might sue for damages, the jury to determine whether their rights have been infringed.

INDIANAPOLIS.

Republican Successes.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 2.—The municipal election here to-day, resulted in the success of the entire Republican ticket for Mayor and city officers, by from 800 to 1,000 majority. The Republicans elect five Councilmen and the Democrats four of the Councilmen. Holding over the Republicans have six; the Democrats three.

At Columbus, Indiana, the Democrats elect the entire ticket, which is a Democratic gain. At Greencastle the Republican ticket is elected by one hundred majority, a Republican gain over last charter election of two hundred. At Madison, Indiana, the Democratic ticket is elected by the usual majority.

LOUISVILLE.

Railroad Matters.

LOUISVILLE, May 2.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad to-day, the President and Directors of the company were authorized to lease the Nashville and Decatur Railroad and make such contracts for the completion and control of the North and South Alabama Railroad as they deem best for the interests of the Louisville and Nashville Company. A resolution was also adopted to guarantee and endorse three and a half million of seven per cent. thirty year bonds of the Memphis and Ohio Railroad.

NEW YORK, May 2, 1871.

A STRIKE.

The non-society quarrymen of this city, who have been receiving one dollar and seventy-five cents and two dollars per day, struck to-day for two dollars and twenty-five cents. They became quite demonstrative yesterday, and the police reserves were called out. Serious trouble is expected.

A QUEER STORY.

The Tribune this morning publishes a queer story regarding the sudden death of Gottschalk, the celebrated pianist. It appears that Gottschalk, while making arrangements for a concert near Rio Janeiro, incurred the displeasure of some college boys in that place. After the concert he was prostrated by a blow from a sand bag in the back. He was momentarily stunned, but death finally resulted. It is not known who the assassin was.

THE LAURENCE DEFALCATION.

The defalcation of General Laurence, the New York Pension Agent, has caused an order to be issued from the Treasury Department to the Assistant Treasurer in this city that all regulations for his guidance heretofore communicated by circular be strictly enforced. One of these regulations is that no check shall be paid unless drawn to the order of some creditor of the United States. It has been the custom, however, for pension agents to draw checks to their own order, thus saving the trouble of identifying strangers, &c. General Laurence drew checks to his own order in this way, and having obtained the cash upon each of them pocketed it.

THE JOINT HIGH COMMISSION.

A Washington special telegraphs that notwithstanding the secresy that the members of the Joint High Commission have professed in regard to the points of the treaty they have negotiated, there remains no doubt that it provides for the recognition of the claims of Englishmen for damages done during our civil war, and that a money compensation is to be given for the use of the Canadian fishing ground in shore, that the navigation of the St. Lawrence is to be free to our vessels and navigation. The Canada canal is bound only to the payment of tolls. The San Juan boundary question is not yet fully settled, but we shall probably get all we want in that direction. The close reticence maintained by Earl de Gray and the English members is not so strictly imitated by our own side of the commission. They venture to say to questioners that the country will be satisfied with their work, but they will not go into details. The correspondent assures us, however, that the prominent points of the new treaty are as stated, that our demands for indemnity for the depredations of the Alabama are conceded. The Englishmen in this country who suffered by our civil war, are to be indemnified, and our fishermen are to have the privilege of the shore fisheries on the payment of a certain sum as a compensation therefor by the United States. It should be remembered, however, that the damages to Englishmen are estimated at some twenty million dollars more than our estimates of the damages by the Alabama.

THE CAR MURDER.

In the Court of Sessions Judge Bedford in charging the jury said in many instances the car drivers and conductors are accomplices of thieves and rowdies who insult and rob passengers in the street cars.

The Coroner's jury, in the case of Avery D. Putnam, returned the following verdict, "We find that Avery D. Putnam came to his death from acute meningitis and fracture of the skull and laceration of the brain, caused by a blow or blows on the head, inflicted with a heavy iron car hook in the hands of Wm. Foster, on the evening of April 26th, at the corner of Seventh avenue and Forty-sixth street."

The authorities are using all possible exertions to bring the accused to trial at the earliest moment, the indictment against Foster being drafted, and the witnesses were before the Oyer and Terminer Grand Jury to-day. Foster will probably be arraigned before Judge Cardoza in that Court to-morrow. An effort, however, will be made by his counsel to put off the trial to a more distant day, fearing lest the present state of the public mind, in reference to the outrage, would be prejudicial to the interest of the prisoner. It is even rumored that a motion will be made to change the place of trial, on the ground that he could not have a fair trial in this county on account of the excited state of the community at large.

OFF FOR EUROPE.

The steamer Scotia takes out to-morrow a large number of passengers, among them General Spinner and family, Miss Usher, Rev. Dr. Adams, H. C. Fauberlock, partner in the Banking house of Jay Cooke, & Co.; Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams and, Mr. William J. Florence and lady. The latter party will be absent two years and will spend most of their time in Ireland. Madame Seebach sailed for Europe to-day.

SENTENCED.

Patrick Toomey, the policeman who was convicted of clubbing to death the boy John Murphy, was to-day sentenced by Recorder Hackett in the Court of General Sessions to two years' imprisonment at hard labor in the State prison.

THE POLICE BOARD.

RIOT.

The strike of the non-society quarrymen continues and collisions with the police have occurred and a riot is progressing in the northern part of the city. The police are all under marching orders.

A Guernsey cow sold for $5.20 another for $3,90; pigs and boars from the Prince Consorts show at Windsor, England sold from fifty to sixty dollars.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company held its annual meeting to-day. The report of operations for the past year show a deficit of over $207,000, which is attributed to losses from coal strikes. The report says the position assumed in this contest was not determined upon by the managers until after full deliberation and it had been ascertained that if the demands of the men were yielded to, they would be followed by demands from other branches and would seriously embarrass the future operations of the company that notwithstanding the prospect of loss by suspension it was thought better to suspend operations for a year, if necessary, than to fasten a policy upon the company which would subject its property to the demands of others and result in the employment of its whole capital solely for the benefit of hostile organizations.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

The new appointments in the custom house by Colonel Forney, have been announced. Out of the twenty-five named, four represent newspapers in this city, including Col. Fitzgerald, proprietor of the City Item, who is made Superintendent of bonded warehouses.

CLEVELAND.

Sentence Commuted.

CLEVELAND, May 2.—The sentence of Wm. Schallenberg, who was to have been hanged on the 18th for murdering his wife, has been commuted to imprisonment for life.

ACCIDENT.

An accident occurred on the Kinsman Street Railroad this morning, resulting in the death of a boy eight years old, son of Mr. Gillette, proprietor of the Birch House, and probable fatal injury of a driver named Graham. The boy was riding on the front platform and having arrived at his destination, the driver attempted to lift him over the enclosure surrounding the platform. Just then the horses started and the boy and man fell to the track and were run over.

ST. JOSEPH.

Suicide.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 2.—John Moran, an express driver, was intoxicated and arrested yesterday, and gave bonds for his appearance. This morning he went to the stable to feed his horse and as he did not return for some time his wife went to look for him and found him hanging by the neck, dead.

ST. LOUIS, May 2.—The funeral of the Hon. Sharon Tyndale, who was murdered at Springfield, Illinois, on Saturday morning last, took place at Belleville, Illinois, yesterday afternoon, under the direction of the Free Masons, and was very imposing. Lodges of Masons from the surrounding towns, and the various societies of Belleville, to which Mr. Tyndale belonged, were in the procession. Ex-Governor Koerner delivered an address at the grave, after which the Masonic burial service was read. The funeral was very large.

PETROLEUM SHELLS.

LONDON, May 2.—The Times' Versailles special says the insurgents at Nuilly are themselves throwing petroleum shells into Paris to keep up the indignation of the populace against the Versailles Government. The people are led to believe that they come from the lines of the army of the Assembly.

REDS SUCCESSFUL.

The Reds have been successful in the elections at Lemans and Narbonne.

COMMUNIST VICTORY.

A force of fifteen thousand National Guards has carried the Versaillist barricade in the lower part of the village of Issy, after an engagement.

DOMBROWSKI CAPTURED.

The Moniteur of this morning says it is rumored that General Dombrowski and staff have been made prisoners by the Assemblists at Asnieres.

RAILWAY STATION CAPTURED.

VERSAILLES, May 2.—The Clamart railway station was captured last night by the Chasseurs at the point of the bayonet. Three hundred insurgents were killed in the action.

SIMULTANEOUSLY ATTACKED.

The Chateau of D'Issy, which the insurgents had temporarily abandoned, was simultaneously attacked by two regiments of Versailles troops. Three hundred Communists were found in the deserted castle, who surrendered to the assailants, and will arrive to-day.

M'MAHON AT WORK.

The Daily News special dispatch from Versailles says M'Mahon has sent a column of twenty-five thousand troops against insurgents who are making sorties by way of Choissy le Roi. A great battle is expected to-morrow.

A new army for the reinforcement of that enveloping Paris is being formed at Auxarre.

VERSAILLISTS REPULSED.

PARIS, May 1.—Evening, via London, May 2.—Reveil this evening announces that the Versaillists attacked fort Issy and were repulsed. Workmen who were sent from Paris last had unspiked guns in the fort which was thereby enabled to make an effective resistance.

BOMBARDMENT.

GENERAL ACTION EXPECTED.

There was an engagement before Hautes Bruyeres to-day, and a general action is expected this evening.

GAINING GROUND.

The Versaillists are daily gaining ground.

ABOUT FORT ISSY.

Another dispatch says that the occupation of Fort Issy by the Communists is again contradicted. It is said the fort is entirely deserted.

OFFICIAL DENIAL.

The truth of the rumor that disturbances have occurred in Lyons is officially denied. The result of the recent elections is satisfactory to the Government.

FORT ISSY.

VERSAILLES, May 2.—Fort Issy proposes surrendering. Government troops surround the fort. Hostages are demanded by General Faran as a guarantee that the fort will not be mined, and he threatens that if it is blown up the garrison will be shot.

CLUSERET'S SUCCESSOR.

General Cluseret has been displaced by Rossel, a young man of twenty-eight years and a lieutenant of French engineers. There are sixty thousand men ready at Reuill to make an attack.

FORTIFICATIONS.

PARIS, Monday Night.—The second enciente of fortifications has been erected close to the real fortifications.

Issy is in ruins and the village has been evacuated, I understand that the Fort has been mined, and when the Versailles troops enter it is to be fired.

Mesy, the Governor of Issy, has been arrested.

SUSPENDED.

The Journal Paix has been suspended.

EVACUATING NUILLY.

Dombrowski, has ordered the inhabitants of Nuilly to evacuate the place within twenty-four hours. The cause of Cluseret's arrest was the abandonment of Issy, for which he was partly blamed.

DISMOUNTED.

The battery of the Porte Des Terres is dismounted.

REPORTED ARREST OF DOMBROWSKI.

It is reported that Dombrowski has been arrested.

[Special to N. Y. World.]

COMMUNISTS IN ENGLAND.

LONDON, May 1.—Several agents of the Paris Commune arrived in this city yesterday. They have been commissioned by that body to enter into contracts here for the purpose of revictualling Paris, but as they propose to pay for their goods in thirty days, dealers decline to contract with them.

NAPOLEON WILL BE AN EXILE.

Emperor Napoleon declared yesterday that he would not return to France nor listen to any proposition for his return.

THIERS' AMBITION.

Thiers has determined on a coup d'etat after entering Paris, making himself and Marshal MacMahon joint regents with the Empress Eugenie.

COMMITTEE OF SAFETY.

PARIS, May 2.—The Commune issued a decree appointing a Committee of Safety.

TROOPS CONCENTRATING.

There is now an immense concentration of Communist troops in and about Fort D'Issy.

GENERAL CLUSERET.

The arrest of General Cluseret was ordered because he was guilty of negligence, by which the safety of Fort D'Issy was compromised. The session of the Commune on Monday was an excited one. Serious charges were made against General Cluseret, and a suggestion was even made that he be shot within twenty-four hours.

DEMANDS PAID.

The railway companies have paid the sums demanded from them by the Commune, and 1,680,000 francs have already been received into the treasury from that source. Weekly payments will hereafter be made by the companies.

REPORTS DENIED.

The official journal of the Commune denies the reports emanating from Versailles of victories for the Assemblist's forces.

MASONIC BANNERS NOT RESPECTED.

The Free Masons have been ordered to retake the banners which they had planted on the ramparts of the city, the Versailles Government and troops declining to respect them.

NOT ARRESTED.

PARIS, May 2 (Afternoon).—The report that General Dombrowski was taken prisoner is not confirmed.

FORT ISSY.

The Versaillists have at no time occupied Fort Issy. After the desertion of its garrison, the volunteers raised by the Commune issued from the city, and not only reoccupied the fort, which they found empty, but after a hard fight and great sacrifice of lives, drove the enemy from the trenches, carried one of their barricades and remained in possession of Cemetery Issy.

FAILED.

They made an attempt to retake Les Molineaux but failed, losing heavily in killed and wounded. Every effort will be made to hold Fort Issy, but should its capture appear inevitable it will be blown up.

PRUSSIA.

AN IMPERIAL COUNCIL.

NEW YORK, May 2.—The special correspondents telegraph the following from Berlin of last Sunday: An Imperial Council was held here to-day to consider the situation of Paris. Bismarck was present. It was agreed to notify the Versailles Government that a further limited period would be allowed for the restoration of authority, for the enforcement of order, and the fulfillment of the treaty stipulations, after which Germany will take independent action to establish law and order in Paris.

The dispatch will emphasize the wish of Germany not to interfere in the internal and political affairs of France, but will add that such interminable civil war, originating in revolution and characterized by disgraceful excesses, cannot longer be tolerated for the moral and material interests of Germany, as well as the whole of Europe are suffering.

Private reliable information leads to the belief that it is the intention of the Germans to restore the Regency as the next legitimate government, in the event of the Versailles government being unable to enforce its authority.

ANNEXATION OF ALSACE AND LORRAINE.

BERLIN, May 2.—In the German Parliament to-day a bill of incorporation of Alsace and Lorraine with the empire came before the House. Bismarck restated the argument on which the measure was based. The annexation of these provinces to Germany was necessary to give her a bulwark against the recurrence of French aggressions, cases which were so frequent in times past. One instance of recent date was cited: On the 6th of August, 1866, France sent to Berlin an ultimatum demanding the cession of Mavence. The illness of the Emperor of the French alone prevented hostilities.

During the late war the foreign powers proposed the neutralization of Alsace and Lorraine, but that would be insufficient for Germany and could not be thought of. "As for the inhabitants still averse to their fatherland," said the Prince in conclusion, "we shall strive to win them back." The bill was referred to the Committee.

PAYING THE COST.

The North German Gazette says: The German Plenipotentiaries at Brussels have proposed the payment of five milliards by France in quarterly instalments, beginning June 2, 1871, and ending March 2, 1874, payments to be made in gold or its equivalent. The French envoys have offered to pay the first milliard in cash and the remainder in rentes convertible later. Fortunately the German armies hold possession of sufficient territory in France to secure payment in accordance with the preliminary terms of peace should no other agreement be arrived at.

A DENIAL.

The Prussian Cross Gazette denies that negotiations for the treaty of peace with France are to be transfered from Brussels to Berlin.

ENGLAND.

LAST NIGHT'S PARLIAMENT.

LONDON, May 2.—In the Chamber of Peers to-night Lords Kimberly, Russell and Grey criticised the Whig administration in Ireland, which was ably defended by Earl Granville.

In the House of Commons there was an interesting debate on ocean postage. Mr. Seeley moved a resolution that the Postmaster General should make arrangements with the United States for the reduction of the rate of postage on letters between England and America to one penny. He pointed out the importance of such reduction to The commercial and poorer classes and urged that it would serve to strengthen the ties between the two nations. Messrs. Momdella and Heron followed in support of the resolution. Mr. Monsell, Postmaster General, thought that pending the present contracts with the ocean steamship lines, a reduction would be impossible. He proceeded to argue generally against changes. Each reduction he said had failed to bring about an increase in business sufficient to pay the department. the shilling rate produced £130,000; the sixpenny rate £93,000; the three penny rate only £47,000. The total cost of the ocean steamer mail service as per contract was £833,000, and the total receipts £363,020; loss £47,000. Mr. White understood the Postoffice had a surplus of £1,300,000 which might be applied to the reduction of the ocean rate. Mr. Gladstone opposed the resolution and begged that the matter might be left to the discretion of the Government. Mr. Seeley scouted the Postmaster General's estimate of losses. He had reason to know that the Government at Washington was prepared for a reduction and England should be ready to meet it. The resolution was defeated and a substitute embodying Gladstone's view was carried.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales presided on the occasion, accompanied by Princess Christiana and several other members of the Royal family. ITALY.

THE ITALIAN SENATE.

FLORENCE, May 2.—The Italian Senate continues the discussion of the question of Papal guaranties. An amendment to the bill abolishing the Pope's right against the exequaturo to Consuls of foreign powers has been rejected. A demonstration planned to celebrate the events of 1849 in some way, proved a failure, the government having been warned that disturbances were intended by the International Society. The reports which has been current that changes are intended in the diplomatic representation of Italy abroad are ascertained to be without foundation.

BELGIUM.

WORKMENS' DEMONSTRATION.

BRUSSELS, May 2.—Five hundred workmen, who were employed in digging a canal in the forest of Hertogenvald, marched in a body to Verviers and demanded the payment of their wages, for some time overdue. The town finally paid the workmen their wages, and all fears of disorder are allayed.

The House Republican caucus nominated Hon. Edwin H. Bugbee of Killingly, for speaker and B. A. Hough of Danbury, and George H. Cowell of Waterbury, as clerks. The Democrats have nominated E. W. Seymour of Litchfield, for speaker, and Reuben B. Belden and Mr. Discoll of New Haven, for clerk. The Democratic caucus was secret, and that of the Republicans public in the Representative's hall.

It is understood that the Democrats oppose an investigation by the Committee, on canvass of votes and matters in dispute, concerning the count of votes in New Haven and Enfield, where the presiding officers have sent statements that there were undoubted errors in the counts. The Legislative Committee will have power to make a thorough investigation in order to decide who has received a majority of the votes cast for Governor. It is pretty certain from what has been learned of the action of the Democrats that they will oppose the investigation in every possible form when the Legislature meets to-morrow. The Republican nominees for Legislative officers will be elected.

BIRMINGHAM COUNCIL.

Treasurer's Report—New Market House—Report of Officers—Burgess' Salary.

The Birmingham Council last evening held a regular monthly meeting.

Present were Messrs. Atterbury, Conway, Doyle, Duncan, Kerr, Schneider, Schwarm, Ziefel and Burgess Salisbury.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The Burgess appointed Mr. Ziefel on the Street and Police Committee, positions made vacant by the death of Mr. Redman.

Mr. Atterbury presented the report of the Treasurer, which shows a balance on hand of $2,532.49 May 1st. Accepted and approved.

Mr. Doyle of the market committee submitted plans for the new market building, which will be three stories in height, cost $40,000, and will be paid for by bonds to be issued by the brough. The market building is to contain 25 butchers stalls, 54 vegetable stalls, two large halls with stages and galleries, supper-room, two large council chambers, Regulartors office, commissioner's office, two committee rooms and two offices on the first floor. It will have two large ventilators, running up from the ground to the roof. The large hall will be 77 by 70 feet. Messrs. Burr & Moser the architects state that they have combined the latest plans, both in the east and west, of contract buildings together with such improvements as suggested themselves and they believed the place to be in every way suited to the purposes for which it is intended.

Mr. Atterbury suggested that bonds be issued te run for five, ten, and fifteen years, bearing 7 or 7 3-10 per cent. interest, and that the rents from the Market-house be set apart for the payment of the interest and the redemption of the bonds. He said the bonds could be easily negotiated at the rate of interest mentioned. He referred to the fact that the Allegheny Market-house was paid for in the same manner and it was paid for in one year. The receipts now are a handsome revenue to the borough. He said that the Market-house could be erected under this method without being any expense to the borough.

Mr. Schwarm moved to refer the matter back to the Market Committee, with instructions to report at the next meeting a resolution for the erection of the market house. Carried.

Mr. Duncan, from the Street Committee, submitted a report recommending the grading and paving of Ninth street from Carson to Bingham; also the paving of William street from Ninth to Tenth; also Breed street.

Mr. Conway moved that the matter be referred back to the Street Committee. Carried.

Mr. Duncan moved that the matter of Washington street be referred back to the Street Committee. Carried.

Mr. Ziefel called attention to the bad condition of the water drops on Washington street. Referred to the Street Committee.

The Borough Regulator submitted a plan of the curbing on Fourteenth street, and streets in the vicinity, showing the curbing to be entirely too high.

Mr. Schneider said the opinion of the Street Committee was that the curbs are too high.

Mr. Kerr moved that the matter of regulating the high curbs be referred to the Street Committee with power to act. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Atterbury, Mr. Charles Evans was elected wharfmaster by acclamation.

The matter of fixing the salary of the Burgess was referred to the Finance Committee to report at the next meeting. The Burgess' salary is now only $50, which Mr. Doyle thought it was an outrage that the Burgess should do so much an only get $50 per annum

The clerk then read the following:

A petition for paving Ninth street between Carson and Birmingham. Granted.

A petition for paving Breed street. Referred to the Street Committee.

A petition for two gas lamps on Washington street. Referred to the Finance Committee with power to act.

A petition to extend the sewer on Eighth street to the Monongahela river. Referred to the Street Committee.

A number of bills were read and warrants ordered.

The monthly salaries of the borough officers were ordered to be paid.

Mr. Schwarm moved that the Burgess be instructed to get the Council Chamber and building painted and refitted. Csrried.

On motion, adjourned to meet on Tuesday, the 9th instant.

IRWINTOWN.

Pleasant Words from the Country.

EDITORS GAZETTE: We started for the country via Pennsylvania Railroad. With a feeling of relief we left behind us the "Smoky City," with its smoke and dust and its great throbbing heart of manifold industries. How fascinating the country appears, with its rich carpet of green, its foliage-laden forests, its opening flowers, its balmy, exhilerating breezes. It is the general remark that never has spring-time been ushered in with more beauty and with greater promise of a rich and abundant harvest.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, for many miles beyond the city, runs through a rich and fertile country. Splendid mansions abound, highly cultivated farms meet the eye everywhere, snug cottages nestle on the hill sides, and villages dot every valley.

Irwintown is our destination for the present. This is a town of great beauty and attractiveness. All the land in the neighborhood was formerly owned by Mr. Irwin, after whom the town is called. He is now said to be very wealthy, and has just completed a fine mansion at the terminus of one of the principal streets of the town. He is a gentleman of great liberality and much respected by all. We are gratified to learn that many of our own most respected citizens spent their childhood days here. We had the pleasure of meeting the venerable father and brothers of one of the most able members of the Pittsburgh bar, H. H. McCormick, Esq. We had also the pleasure of forming the acquaintance of Mr. Gill and family. Mr. Gill is father to Mr. S. Gill, one of our most respected townsmen, of the firm of Koenig & Gill. We had also the pleasure of forming the acquaintance of Messrs. Aiken, Jeorge and Robins and others who stand high in this community. But we must not forget to mention our kind host, Mr. Thomas Shaw, who owns one of the finest farms in this section, and who is a gentleman of great worth, indeed, and universally beloved for his sweet and happy disposition and for his many amiable traits of head and heart. To Mr. and Mrs. Shaw and their amiable and beautiful family we tender thanks for many favors received.

Irwintown has increased greatly during the past few years. It can now boast of some of the finest residences to be found anywhere. It has many fine stores, doing a flourishing business. It has a public school building which is a credit to the town. It has its doctors its lawyers and ministers who are all an honor to their several professions. There are some five or six churches here, belonging to the principal denominations. The United Presbyterian element is very wealthy and numerous. They have a church two miles from the town, and a fine new building just completed in the town which are both under the care of one pastorate. Rev. W. H. McMaster, a young minister of great promise, has just received a unanimous call to the pastorate of the united churches.

Altogether our visit to this beautiful and prosperous little town was a very pleasant one, and we believe that no better place could be found where our citizens could spend the months of the heated term.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—The Black Crook, despite the unfavorable weather and the English Opera, drew another crowded house last night. It is the attraction for to-night.

THE ENGLISH OPERA.—Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, Library Hall was last night filled to its greatest capacity by a large, brilliant and fashionable audience. The beautiful opera of the "Bohemian Girl" was rendered in exquisite style. This afternoon "Maritana" will be presented at the matinee. This evening, for the first time in this city, "Robert le Diable" will be presented in English. To-morrow night the season closes with "Martha."

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES.—Manager Aims' new stars have already established themselves among the patrons of that most popular house as artists of the first class. The selection of songs, dances and specialties on the bills for this evening is simply tremendous, and the only wonder with us is how he can afford to give so much fun for so little money.

CITY HALL.—The rain of last night restrained many of the numerous patrons of this institution from visiting it. The voting for the diamond pin and other valuable articles continues quite brisk.

RED LION LOT.—The great mammoth circus and menagerie opens to-morrow afternoon, and will remain in the city but three days, giving two performances daily. One of the largest and best selected troupes of acrobats—the renowned Bedouins—and a full company of riders and clowns accompany this circus. Boys, get your stamps ready and be on hand at two o'clock to-morrow, you will not have a similar opportunity this summer again.

A Naval Battle in the East River—Attempt to Steal a Ship.

For some time past the ship William Tapscott has been lying at Pier No. 36 East River, in charge of United States Marshal Sharpe, pending the decision of a suit between Wm. Tapscott and Morgan & Co. Saturday night the vessel was left in charge of Deputy Marshals Irish and Long, who were alarmed about two o'clock yesterday morning by learning that some men were endeavoring to cut her adrift. It was evident to them that an effort was to be made to relieve them surreptitiously of their charge, as they saw two tugs near at hand with steam up ready, as they supposed, to make fast to the ship and tow her off, as soon as she should be cut loose. They therefore made a vigorous attack upon the men tampering with the lines, and with the assistance of several Seventh Precinct officers, who reponded to the cry for help, they succeeded in driving the meddlers away. During the affair some twenty pistol shots were exchanged between the parties, but the marksmanship was so wretched that no one was injured. The vessel yet remains in charge of the Deputy Marshal.—New York Times.

The Preservation of Eggs.

The Journal de Pharmacie et de Chimie contains an account of some experiments by M. H. Violette, on the best method of preserving eggs—a subject of much importance in France. Many methods had been tried; continued immersions in lime-water or salt water; exclusion of air by water, saw-dust, etc., and even varnishing has been tried, but respectively condemned. The simplicity of the method adopted on many farms, namely, that of closing the pores of the shell with grease or oil, had, however, attracted the attention of the author, who draws the follow conclusions from a series of experiments on this method. Vegetable oil, more especially linseed, simply rubbed on the egg, hinders any alteration for a sufficently extensive period, and presents a very simple and efficacious methods of preservation, eclipsing any methods hitherto recommended or practiced.

LOUISVILLE
CEMENT.
The Best--The Cheapest.
The Cement has acquired the reputation as the first in the country in hydraulic strength and uniform reliability.
It is now in general use from the lakes to the Gulf, most of the public works in the West and South being constructed with it.
The mills at Louisville having been enlarged and improved, can supply any demand, and though the Cement has always, for 30 years brought higher prices than competing brands, it is from this time the determination of the manufacturers, in order to largely increase the sale and extend the use of their Cement, to furnish it in the principal markets at prices which make it the most available and economical for all classes of work.
The large capacity of this Cement for taking sand renders it much the cheapest that can be used for buildings of any kind.
At the reduced prices in Pittsburgh its cost is not much above common lime, which makes it unquestionably to the interest of owners and builders that the foundations of every good house should be laid in this Cement.
A large stock of fresh Cement has just been received by barges from Louisville, and is offered at greatly reduced prices by the following dealers:

IT IS POSITIVELY DENIED that the Joint High Commission has agreed on any treaty. There is a belief that some two or three points are still in dispute, but that all will be adjusted in time to present the treaty to the Senate when it meets on the 10th inst. The Joint High Commission has kept its labors so strictly secret, that every rumor in relation to the basis of any agreement is necessarily founded solely on hypothesis. What it has done is unknown and will be until the Senate meets.

THE CONCORD Statesman, New Hampshire, gives the following as the complexion of the New Hampshire Legislature. The whole number of Representatives purporting to be elected, 329. Republicans, 166; Democrats and Labor Reformers, 163; Republican majority over all, 3. But the Statesmen further asserts that four who are declared elected, all of whom are Democrats, have no right to seats. The Senate will stand five Republicans to five Democrats, and unless some of the Republicans elected are removed by death, the Republican party will control the organization, and James Pike will be chosen Governor.

THE RUMOR has been raised that Mr. English intends taking forcible possession of the Gubernatorial chair of Connecticut, on the ground that the report made by the board of canvassers is final, and that he is elected. Mr. English may be foolish enough to try that little Democratic game, but we much mistake the spirit of the citizens of Connecticut if they will quietly allow any such outrage. The State legislature meets to-day and it is there the question properly belongs. On the decision of that body hangs the fate of Mr. English, and if it is decided that he is not elected, there is too much determination on the part of the Republicans to allow him to stay there. We can scarcely believe that he will make the attempt to force himself into the chair, although should he do so, it would be a fitting sequel to his bid to Tammany, the frauds at New Haven, and the general bribery that existed, that gave him the vote he did receive.

THERE WAS a large Emigration meeting held at New York on the 11th ult., participated in by prominent gentlemen, representing large landed interests in the Southern and Western States and Territories. The object of the meeting was for consultation and the adoption of measures for the systematic organization of emigration. Hon. Horace Greeley was President of the meeting and delivered a most instructive and interesting address, advocating with wonderful clearness and effect the advantages of organized emigration, citing as a practical illustration of his favorite theories the success of his pet colony, settled by the National Land Company at Greeley, Colorado. The spirit of the meeting tended decidedly to the plans of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. We give our readers to-day the speech of Col. John S. Loomis, Land Commissioner of the Northern Pacific Road, and invite attention to the subject of railway and internal development of the country during the last thirty years, concerning which he speaks most intelligently. The Northern Pacific Railway Company, by the appointment of Col. Loomis as their Land Commissioner, have secured the services of a gentleman thoroughly educated in the land system of the Government, and possessed of years of valuable experience in emigration work. He is just in the prime of life,—able, energetic and ambitious—full of enthusiasm with the great railway and emigration enterprises which are to make our American wildernesses gardens of wealth and the centre of social and political power of the nation, and with practical business sense in organizing and promoting wholesale settlements of communities on the one hundred and thirty million acres of Government and railway lands on the line of the Northern Pacific, between Lake Superior and Puget Sound. The Colonel's speech, like all his public addresses, is argumentative, eloquent, lucid, and the subject one of great national significance.

DEAD LOCK.

From present appearances another dead lock will exist in our State Legislature. While it is to be hoped that it may not exist, yet should it do so, it will be nothing more than was expected. It is very true that the Democratic members of the Senate gave their most solemn pledges that, should the Apportionment Bill be passed as agreed upon in the Conference Committee, that the old dead lock should be relieved, and that no similar action would be taken by the Democracy on the amendments to the Registry Law. Faith, however, in the honest fulfilment of any Democratic promise is about dead in the hearts of our citizens, and there is no Democratic act too gross nor no violation of agreement too great on the part of the Democracy to be any matter of surprise to the people at large.

The position assumed by the Democrats in the Senate, with relation to the Apportionment bill was an outrage on the freedom of action in the House. It was a brazen attempt to drive a legislative branch into measures against the will and wish of the majority. To effect this end, days and weeks passed idly away, no actual good being done, and no upright or honest end being attained. A compromise however was gained, and a bill was finally passed, and now awaits the action of the Governor. Whether that bill be good or bad, whether it was a Republican or a Democratic triumph is not now a question. Be it good or bad, it was passed only on the solemn declarations of the Democratic members of the Senate, that there would be no similar effort made to force the amendments of the Registry law through the House.

We are not disposed to urge any concessions in the matter. Independent of the fact that the Registry law relating to Philadelphia is good and requires no amendments whatever, there would be, with us, most decided objections to having amendments made, good or bad, in the manner proposed. We believed at the time the Apportionment bill was in dispute, that the precedent that was being established was bad, but that a good bill might be obtained by some concessions, and so advocated a compromise, or an attempt to adjust the difficulty. While doing so, however, we were well aware that the precedent was dangerous and ought not to be established. That precedent has been established, and one of its first fruits is another attempt in all human probability, to compel the House again to accede to the terms of the Senate, in another matter, and one that is intended solely to benefit the Democracy of the city of Philadelphia.

Should a concession be made in this instance it may be pointed out for all time to come, and our Legislature be nothing more in the future, than an assemblage of men gathered together for the sake of party. All party measures will be strictly enforced, and on the refusal of either House to acquiesce the general legislative business of the whole State will be neglected. This is not the purpose for which men are elected to the Legislature, and no good nor honest Representative or Senator will lend himself to such a scheme. The effort ought to be killed at once. What damage has been done already is beyond calculation, but it is possible to prevent further efforts of this nature. The House is Republican. For the sake of permitting the general business of the State to be transacted, that Republican House conceded very much. It has therefore placed itself fairly on the Record, and it can scarcely be required to again make concessions in order to prove that it is the Democracy of the Legislature that is trampling on the rights of the people.

SPEECH OF COL. JOHN S. LOOMIS,

LAND COMMISSIONER, OF THE
Northern Pacific Railway Company,
At Demilt Hall, New York, April 11, 1871.

Mr. President and Fellow Citizens:

That there are millions in Europe, and hundreds of thousands of people in the crowded cities and districts of America who are living at an unprofitable advantage, and who, by reason of inadequate or or unremunerative employment, are restless for change and opportunities which will lift their lives into higher recognitions, is sufficient reason to bring together large corporate and private interests to consult with the people as to the most direct method of making a change for the better. We are here to discuss the proposition of an organized effort to promote emigration to and aid the settlement and development of the immense unoccupied tracts of our great National States and Territories, and by this means to conserve the welfare of the emigrant as well as the State, Railway and other landed interests which we represent.

We have finished descriptions of the triumphal march of armies and victorious battle-fields, with their sacrifice of human live and waste of treasure, and delight in coming back to the arts of peace, and to think of the grand future of America; the development of her peerless natural resources, the execution of the laws of progress, and the administration of a Civil Code which will guarantee the peaceful pursuit of happiness, and secure exact justice to all classes, whether native born or adopted, or strangers within our gates.

PHYSICAL FEATURES OF AMERICA.

On an occasion like the present, it may be profitable to consider the distinguishing physical features of our country in a form easily understood and remembered. The superficial area of the United States, including all her territories and water, is as follows:

	Sq. Miles.
Surface of Lakes and Rivers	3,010,250
The area of the Alantic Slope	423,197
The area of the Mississippi Valley, including pasturage	1,899,811
The Pacific Slope has a superficial area (exclusive of Alaska) of	627,256

PROGRESS OF NATIONAL GROWTH.

To illustrate the progress of material growth of the whole country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, reliable statistics exhibit the fact that in 1850 the Atlantic Slope States were in advance of those of the Mississippi Valley in the leading available interests belonging to agricultural pursuits. Corn and wheat were the products in which the Valley States excelled. The Atlantic States had more land under cultivation—a greater number of improved farms, the cash value of which was greater than that of the Valley States; but the development between 1850 and 1860 discloses a startling change, and reads like the history of the creation of the world in six days, or the growth of a continent.

In 1850, the aggregate of improved lands in the Atlantic States was 63,965,491 acres; cash value, $1,991,599,378. In the Valley States the aggregate of improved lands was 48,885,479 acres; at cash value of $1,232,941,038. In 1860 the aggregate of improved lands in the Atlantic States was 73,882,853 acres, at a cash value of $3,132,561,500. In the Valley States the aggregate of improved lands was 87,034,199 acres, at a cash value of $3,446,702,533, showing in the space of ten years an advance of the Valley States over the Atlantic States of 13,151,346 acres of improved land, and a preponderance of cash value to the amount of $314,141,033.

To this wonderful growth of the Valley States add the increase of the Pacific Slope States and territories, which have advanced from 181,644 acres of improved land in 1850, at cash value of $6,033,010, to 3,537,668 acres of improved land in 1860, at a cash value of $67,780,934, and it will be seen that the course of Empire shines brilliantly in the West, and that, with the development of mining industries and of all internal systems of coummunication, together with the moral and intellectual growth of the people, must inevitably make it the center of wealth and political power of the nation.

In this wonderful development we have employed iron rails and electric wires, making way for the settlement of an intelligent people who availed themselves of improved processes and labor saving appliances for all industries; and yet our immigration enterprise and railway system have not half reached their full expansion, and have never been operated in unison.

THE RAILROAD AND TELEGRAPH AS PIONEERS OF CIVILIZATION.

The following figures show the railway developments of the United States, which began in 1830, and the figures cover the period from that date to the year 1870, inclusive:

	Miles Proj'd.	Miles Com'd	Cost.
Atlantic States	28,635.68	21,962.41	$964,197,686
Valley States	56,976.04	30,359.98	1,247,644,200
Pacific States	8,259.10	2,113.10	144,640,500
Total	93,870.82	54,435.49	$2,356,482,386

We have thus exhibited the physical construction of our ocean-bound republic, and the agencies which have been employed to make it the triumphant vindicator of the idea of a free government and its adoption as the highway of nations.

IMMIGRATION THE GREAT NATIONAL QUESTION.

In a national point of view, there is new no subject involving greater issues and which should command more careful consideration than a national system for promoting immigration to the millions of acres of our unoccupied public lands. No government on earth numbers within its boundaries the amount of arable lands equal to the United States.

In the States east of the Mississippi River, the lands have nearly all passed into the hands of citizens. Including the State of Wisconsin and the States and Territories west of the Mississippi, there remains, surveyed and unsurveyed, a little over one billion and eight million acres unoccupied. In what manner can we discharge the duty we owe to society, and secure for our posterity conditions of the highest prosperity, and rivet these bonds of national unity so strong that enemies without or within can never break them? The answer is easy. Unite the land and transportation interests, now represented largely by Land Grant Railways and their eastern connections and the Oceanic Stemship Companies, and take to our rich domain in the West the surplus population of our cities, and the millions of intelligent and thrifty people in Europe, who must leave their impoverished land; and who love America as the richest gift of God to mankind. Add to this a well-devised and thoroughly-sustained system of National Education, which will apply to all the States alike, and the future grandeur of America—her additions to the wealth of the world, and perfection of all agencies to christianize and enlighten the nations will come with such astonishing rapidity as to baffle the genius of the Statistician, the Statesman, and the Philanthropist.

FREE CITIZENSHIP AND FREE HOMES.

America, through the representatives of the people in Congress, (building wiser perhaps than they knew), granted Homesteads and Citizenship, Land and the equality of civil rights, to all comers on terms of liberality without parallel in history.

Congress passed the Pre-emption and the Homestead acts, the former securing to occupants of the public land (having made certain improvements) the right of purchase at the minimum price of a dollar and a quarter per acre, outside of the limits of railway land grants; and two dollars and fifty cents per acre within such limits—the latter granted homestead to the citizen occupant at the cost of survey and entry. To make these Homestead and Pre-emption lands available to actual settlement and to answer the demand and interests of the people for a national system of internal development, the Government has granted lands, and in the case of the first roads constructed, bonded subsidies to aid construction of railroads across the Continent and over its unsettled and otherwise profitless territory.

LAND GRANTS OF THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD—POLICY OF THE COMPANY.

The Northern Pacific Railroad, the longest continuous and single line chartered by Congress, has received a large share of the national faith in the application of this policy.

This company, from the President and Directors to the humblest employe in its service, have a realizing sense of the duty they owe to the Government and people of the United States, to construct and maintain a first-class railway line between the Great Lakes and the Pacific Ocean. They are determined to fulfil the expectation of the Government and people in such a manner as to signally illustrate the wisdom of that policy which has made grants of public lands to aid in the development of the national domain.

The Directory of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company is composed of men prominently identified with the construction of all the leading railroad lines between the Atlantic Ocean and the Mississippi River; men who have borne a large share of the burdens and responsibilities of establishing those kindred social and political institutions which have placed America, within the last half century, in the first rank among nations; men who in the hour of our country's extremity stood fast in the breach of our public credit, and maintained the paying power of the Government to the salvation of these United States. [Applause.]

Educated by such experiences, they have learned to deal with vast enterprises, involving the interests of the people—in a humane and equitable spirit—knowing that the true and permanent interests of the corporation they represent are best served by a policy identical with that dictated by patriotism and benevolence. Such policy is based on two simple propositions:

First. The proper business of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company is Transportation.

Second. No land speculations shall forestal the people in reaping advantage of opening up the magnificent territory to which the road gives access.

The permanent income of the Company is to be derived from the business of the prosperous communities settled along the line of the road: it's interest, therefore, is not to speculate in the lands granted by the government, but to hold the same at such low prices, and to offer such other facilities and advantages as will induce the largest and most desirable immigration, and contribute to the most immediate settlement of the country which the road depends upon for support. The Government, the Press, the People and the Railroad, Steamboat and Steamship Companies are co-builders of States; their interests are mutual, and each is the gainer by the prosperity of the others.

The cementing of all these interests is being effectually accomplished. The connections of the Northern Pacific Railroad, by land and water, link it with all the lines of travel in America, and by steamship lines to all parts of Europe, China and Japan; a system of transportation National in its origin—International in its scope, opening its arms westward towards Asia, eastward towards Europe, inviting the traffic of the nations.

In furthering the settlement of the vast region tributary to its line, the Company will endeavor to educate the public mind as to the geography, climate and resources of its territory. From the publications of the company in the languages of all nationalities, and from the personal and written explanations of its agents, the intending emigrant can, at his own home, obtain such accurate information of the soil, climate, natural sources of wealth, industries established, facilities for new undertakings, population, price of lands, cost and means of reaching them, as will enable them to determine beforehand almost the exact section he will purchase; what he will do upon it and who will be his associates. Further than this, the company will contract for passage and freight from any part of America or Europe for settlers upon their lands at lower rates than the emigrants can negotiate for themselves. They will charge themselves with the care of the emigrants from their starting point, give them safe conduct to their destination without extra expense or delay, and without exposing them to be fleeced by the sharpers in the cities and on travel routes who always hang on the flanks of the army for plunder. They will engage to supply their settlers with the seeds and tools, the implements and machinery for their industries at the lowest wholesale price of the dealers and manufacturers, only adding cost of transportation from the factory to the station nearest to the land, thus saving to the settler the usual retail profit which accumulates in the hands of intermediate dealers.

I can give only a brief and general summary of the information and assistance which will be fully afforded, as I have just stated, but will give such leading facts as the limits of time this evening will allow.

ROUTE, CLIMATE, SOIL, ETC.

The route of the Northern Pacific Railroad is from the western end of Lake Superior, through the State of Minnesota, the Territories of Dakota, Montana, Idaho and Washington, and the State of Oregon, to Pugent Sound on the Pacific Ocean.

The line of the road is almost uniformly due east and west, and follows very closely the forty-six degree parallel, being between the latitude of Venice and that of Paris; limits which embrace in Europe, Asia and America the most progressive, enlightened and successful populations of the globe. At the eastern end of the line the winters are as cold as in New England, but are much pleasanter, owing to the dryness and stillness of the atmosphere, and the absence of sudden changes. The well-known healthfulness of this climate, making Minnesota the resort for invalids from all parts of the world, justifies me in calling it the great sanitarium for the wasted energy of mankind.

From Minnesota westward the climate grows steadily milder, until at the Pacific territories there is scarce any winter at all. This vernal modification of climate, which no well-informed person now questions, is due First, to the Pacific Gulf Stream, which strikes the coast at Puget Sound, and whose softening effects extend far inland; and Second, to the low altitude of the country on the line of the forty-six degree parallel; the highest point on the Northern Pacific Road being 3,000 feet lower than the summit of the central line.

The Eastern terminus rests on the greatest of the great lakes, the head of continuous navigation to the Atlantic ocean. At the western end is a land locked harbor 128 miles in extent, unequalled in the world for safety and convenience. At short intervals the line crosses or follows the greates rivers on the continent: the Mississippi, the Missouri, the Red, the Yellowstone, the Clarke, the Columbia and the Cowlitz, all now navigated by steamboats, and affording ample feeders for the distribution of freights and passengers upon and from the line of the road.

The richest soil for agriculture is found west of the Mississippi. Between tde Mississippi and Lake Superior the soil is more light and sandy, though fine crops of wheat, corn and oats are produced. From the Mississippi westward the upper soil is strong, black vegetable mould, the product of decaying vegetation during the centuries; under this is a sandy loom, rich in lime, mixed with the upper layer it affords substantial soil for all crops. The upper soil is richest and deepest on the lowland, and with the proper culture these lands cannot be exhausted in a century. In East Minnesota the great body of the lands is covered with timber, pine, poplar, oak, beech and maple, and indeed all the wooded growth of this continent, whether hard or soft, that is useful in manufactures or commerce.

In pasturage and advantages for stock-raising, the lands of the Northern Pacific will exceed those of any other line in America. A growth peculiar to this latitude called "Bunch grass," covers valleys and mountains; rich and succulent in summer, it cures on the stalk, and becomes the best of hay in the winter. No where else in the world is such possibility of grazing cattle in vast herds without shelter, prepared fodder, or care, as exists all over the regions to be traversed by the road, on either slope of the Rocky Mountains.

WATER POWERS, MANUFACTURES, &C.

The water power on and near the line is immense, beyond computation, and it never fails. When rains cease to fall, the streams are kept filled by mountain snows, and the full fall can be used 365 days in the year. The main streams, and their different affluents, aggregating thousands of miles in length, now waste innumerable powers, more than enough to do the work of the world. The cost of transporting cotton to the factory in Minnesota, requiring but one shipment and being all water carriage, is but one-half of the same cost to Lowell. Food being produced abundently in immediate vicinity of the factory, the cost of manufactures is 7 per cent., or a commercial profit, less than in Massachusetts, where food must be imported; Minnesota flour being a considerable item in such importation. So soon as the settlement of these new regions will afford a home market to both farmers and manufacturers, the costs of eastern transportation and commissions for handling their products will be saved to each; an incalculable economy, which we have never yet had full opportunity to realize.

An abundance of coal is known to exist and is already mined at different points, all the way from the Mississippi to Puget Sound

Through the entire Rocky Mountain Range, the line embraces the richest mineral district on the continent. Gold, Silver, Platinum, Copper, Lead, Iron and Rock Salt certainly abound, and at the Eastern terminus lie the famous Copper deposits and magnetic Iron ores of Lake Superior.

All varieties of Granite are quarried at St. Cloud, Sauk Rapids, and other places. That of the Granite Hills being of quality superior to any found in the East.

Several rich varieties of Marbles, Blue Magnesian Lime Stones, Free Stone, Sand Stone, Slates, Chalk, and endless beds of fine Clays, are among the mineral resources of this favored region.

The fisheries of Puget Sound and the North Pacific Coast are to well known to need comment. It is enough to say further, that the Lakes, Rivers and Sounds are bountifully stocked with fish, whose preservation for home use and for market, modern science has enabled us to make sure; an interest which the North Pacific Railroad Co. will endeavor to provide for.

Such are some of the natural sources of wealth, inadequately suggeeted, rather than stated, of the country through which this Great Railroad Line is laid down. The Land Grant to the Main Line and Branches of the Northern Pacific amounts to 65,000,000 acres. The interest of the Company in the settlement of these lands is supplemented by an equal interest in the settlement of the co-extensive Government domain; so that the territory to which the Northern Pacific Railroad Company invites immigration reaches the enormous figures of 130,000,000 acres. Truly a magnificent Empire! An area greater than 26 States as large as Massachusetts! And with every natural advantage incalcuably superior to that rich populous and powerful State. What possible flight of rhetoric could overstate the splendid future of this great northwestern section of our land. There are no moral or political leprosies to embarass the immigrant in this virgin domain! No social parasites nor industrial drones! The institutions to obtain there may be such as a free and intelligent people, actuated by the spirit of Republican Liberty, may see fit to construct.

ORGANIZED COLONIZATION.

It is probable that the destinies of these new States will be largely influenced by communities settling under some form of organized colonization. The advantages of such systems are the simultaneous occupancy of the lands, the transplanting of a whole neighborhood at one time, with all the comforts and conveniences of civilization intact. The reduction in cost of transportation, in the purchase of implements, supplies, stock, &c., in large quantities at wholesale. The intelligent direction of public affairs, and control of school lands, &c., within the Colony. In these respects, among others, is the system of organized colonization superior to what the Tribune has called "The Daniel Boone method." That journal has steadily advocated organization as the American idea of emigration; and practical experiments following its teachings, have fully shewn their truth.

We may consider that the oldest organized colony was that of the Pilgrims, who landed on Plymouth Rock and sowed in that rigorous clime—on that desolate soil—the seeds of a mighty republic. Turning from this harsh picture, we may look upon the youngest organized colony, planted just one year since in the western wilderness. This infant community have already built up a city of 500 families, have established churches, schools, a newspaper, hotels, stores, factories and farms, and manifest an executive vitality that will soon place it among the best of important towns of the west. They have named their place in honor of one of the great leaders in this as in other movements of human progress, and it is already known, the world over, as the City of Greeley, Colorado.

All that has been successfully accomplished at Greeley may be done again elsewhere. We hope and expect soon to see a thousand such prosperous and thriving towns springing up in the valleys and on the hillsides of Minnesota and Dakotah, of Montana, Idaho and Washington.

The advantage of the Colonization system to be inaugurated by the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, will secure the members of its Colonies:

First. Rich land at cheap prices—long time for payment, with low rate of interest.

Second. Reduction in cost of transportation and implements and materials for settlement and cultivation.

Third. Simultaneous occupation of large tracts of the lands of the company, and the adjoining sections of government land reserved by the laws of the U. S., especially for actual settlers.

Fourth. The practical co-operation of labor, and mutual help of a whole community of old friends and neighbors to secure to each man a comfortable home on his own tract.

Fifth. For individual colonists or members of colonies, of small means, who cannot buy lands, the same reduced rates of transportation and materials for settlement on the Free Homestead lands of the Government lying within the Land Grant of the Company, as will be afforded to colonists who buy railroad lands.

Sixth. The Company will receive through its Land Department, from persons who have rot the means to emigrate, and who are engaged in industries throughout this country and Europe, laborers on the line building its road, mechanics, artizans, clerks, and all those who desire to safely husband a percentage of their current wages—installiments of ten dollars or upwards, and allow interest on snch savings and deposits at the rate of six per cent. per annum, until a sufficient sum of principal and interest shall have accumulated to make a payment on a land contract—and an allowance of same interest on the principal of such sums as may be deposited with the land department to meet the deferred payment on the land contract. The land will be selected for the depositor from among the best lands of the Company, and in the midst of thriving communities which will rapidly enhance its value.

Earnestly and cordially we invite, and offer our aid to, men of industry and intelligence throughout the world, to enter upon and enjoy opportunities more desirable than the human race ever knew until this day. Well located farms of rich, deep soil, at the price of from one to three days' labor per acre. Timber of the best in every variety, and inexhaustible in quantity—at a cost merely nominal. Metals and minerals of incalculable value. Every description of materials for manufacture; and more power than can possibly be used. And to farmer and miner, to manufacturer and artizan, to their families and children, to all who may come in good faith and right intention, our country gives the boon of our free institutions, free homes, free schools and free churches; and covers them all with the beneficent protection of the Star-Spangled flag of America.

AN apology "as is an apology," is thus published in a Kansas paper: "Some time last winter Dr. S. E. Sheldon ordered me to make him a fine single-breasted frock coat, to be worth $45. I made the coat, and it was a perfect fit; but he left it on my hands, because he wanted a 'swallow tail' instead, whereby I suffered a loss of $20. This spring he ordered of me a business suit, and endeavored to again leave a coat on my hands. I told him to leave the whole suit or pay me for it. He refused, and I kicked him out of my shop at eight o'clock on the morning of March 27, 1871. He has since, however, paid me, and requested an apology, which I now make, and state that had he paid me for my work, as requested, I weuld not have kicked him out of my shop, as above mentioned.—J. V. Hart."

NOVA SCOTIA.—The people of Nova Scotia, on May 10th, will hold their elections for members of the Provincial Legislature, and the result is awaited by the other Provinces with some anxiety. In '67, when the last general election was held, the opponents of the union with the Dominion of Canada were successful by large majorities, but the friends of confederation now claim that their candidates will be successful at the coming election. The "confederates" assert that the "anti-confederates" are animated by the spirit of faction, and that their ulterior object is annexation to the United States.

A WRITER in an European paper remarks that Thomas is the champion democratic name. He says: "Did you ever, in the course of your reading, meet with the Christian name of Thomas in connection with royalty, either as Emperor, King, Prince, royal Duke, or any scion of royalty, either in ancient or modern times?"

OF Cluseret, only this: Just after the battle of Stone River, Rosecranz telegraphed to Halleck for two or three good officers of divisions. Halleck replied, "I have none but Cluseret, and you don't want him." Rosy's inference was—well, he didn't ask for Cluseret—Dayton Journal.

WE congratulate the Louisville Courier-Journal upon its evident prosperity Heretofore form motives of prudence and economy, we, presume, that paper has spelt the name of our city, without the final h, but its financial skies are brightening and it makes haste to show at once that it was not ignorance that caused it to make this blunder.

THURSDAY was the first aniversary of the terrible calamity at the Virginia capitol in Richmond. The surviving sufferers by the disaster have been liberally provided for by the large fund raised for their relief, and the Richmond Press Club has appointed a committee to raise money to place a tablet in the Capitol, in memory of those who perished.

A DENTIST is on trial in Lockport on a suit for damages for injuries done a boy ten years of age by the use of laughing-gas. It is charged that he gave assurances that the gas, which was administered in January, was harmless, and that on the contrary, since that time the boy has suffered from fits and a kind of dementia, as a direct consequence of its use.

DAVID A. WELLS is travelling through the south and west delivering free-trade lectures. The most elegant hall's are procured for him no charge is made for admission, and the free-trade papers in each place write him up for days before hand so that he draws large crowds. We believe there is no truth teller engaged to follow him and confute his falsehoods

BEECHER remembers seeing his second mother dance to his father's fiddling, and thinks "if my mother had danced oftener and said the catechism a little less it would have been better for all of us. If you have a talent for music cultivate it; for dancing, cultivate it; whatever gifts God has given you make the most of them, whether of voice, foot or eye."

A LETTER from Alabama asserts that the members of the Kuklux have entered upon a systematic course of unwarranted presecution upon County Judges and Sheriffs, their object being to compel them to resign their offices, and to obtain control of the County Boards of supervisors, and thus have the management of elections entirely in their own hands

JOHN AUSTIN, a colored man, seventy-five years old died in New Bedford, Mass., on Tuesday, he was living in New York at the time of the riots in July, 1863, and being in danger of death by the mob, was concealed in a cart underneath a load of empty bottles, and so conveyed out of harm's way. He was badly injured, however, and never recovered from the effects.

CALIFORNIA has found a grass that will live through her dry summers, and is sowing its seed very widely over the State. It is called "alfalfa," and a single house in San Francisco sold 2,000 pounds of it in a single day. It is claimed for it that it will not only stand the drought, but be more productive than the native grasses, and less expensive to cultivate than wheat and oats grown for hay.

THE Boston Traveller says that Mrs. Wellman, a woman in the employ of Mrs. Ames, a milliner, in Stoughton, Mass., was assaulted by two disguised ruffians as she was passing from the shop homeward on Wednesday evening last, and her eyes, mouth, nose and ears filled with vitriol. The perpetrators of the outrage evidently mistook her for Mrs Ames, as, on her shrieking, they said, "It is not Mrs. Ames." and let her go.

MR. SAMPSON, the North Adams shoe manufacturer, says that his experiment is so successful that he intends to import fifty more Chinese, increasing the number to one hundred and twenty-five. Before the first shipment arrived his business had hardly held its own, but now it is largely profitable. The Chinese are very apt in learning the business, and some of the Caucasians whom he has since employed, have left in disgust because the Chinese were more rapid workmen than themselves. They average about one-sixth more work in proportion to their number.

THE Milwaukee Sentinel says: Mr Peter Bach, teacher of German in Juneau School, yesterday swore out a warrant against Arthur Leach, charging him with an assault and battery. According to Mr. Bach's statement, Mr. Leach's son became unruly on Wednesday afternoon in school and was forcibly ejected from the class-room. Mr. Leach, learning of the affair, reached the school-house just as the school was on the point of closing, and, approaching Mr. Bach, tweaked his nose in presence of the scholars. The case has created considerable excitement throughout the First ward.

AN exchange remarks that the Hon. Hirosawa Sansi—William H., we think his first name was—the Japanese Secretary of State, has fallen by the hands of an assassin—thirty of them, in fact. Those who recollect Mr. Sansi only in connection with the popular engravings representing him as sustaining upon his feet a pyramid of tubs and other household utensils, or spinning tops on a fine thread, have little knowledge of the wealth of statesmanship stowed away in his massive brain, or of the depth of his character. Upon them the blow will not fall with such crushing effect as upon those upon whom it falls with more crushing effect.

THE New Orleans Republican writes forcibly against the carrying of concealed weapons, and to enforce its objections mentions that it was but a short time before the late civil war that a physician of New Orleans, on a visit to New York, slaughtered a fellow lodger while in a frenzy of inebriation. For this crime he was sentenced to a few years' imprisonment, and a portion of the press in New Orleans raved about the conviction as if the culprit ranked with the noble army of martyrs. He was pardoned after some time, and, returning to New Orleans, was, within the time to which his sentence would have reached, killed in an attempt to commit another murder.

IMPORTANT TO THE RUPTURED.

If there is one thing more than another that requires skill and exactitude in the fitting, it is in the application of Trusses and appliances for hernia or rupture. If you will read over the health reports now and again, you will see cases reported "died of strangulated hernia." Now every one of these cases could have been relieved by the application of a proper truss. What is the value of a few dollars to the cost of a human life? Many people do not know where to get such appliances. We will tell you—Dr. Keyser, at 167 Liberty street, is the best place in the city—in fact, we can say without bias, in the country. Every kind of rupture can be relieved by him, and in many cases a thorough cure can be obtained. The Doctor has made the fitting of instruments for hernia the study of his life, and it ought to be a matter of satisfaction to the afflicted to know where perfect relief can be procured. A prevalent error on the part of very many persons is to mistake other appearances for rupture, which never need be the case by one skilled in the application and schooled in the anatomy of Rupture. Of a truth it is too serious an affliction to be in doubt about. Our readers will cut this out and remember the place. Dr. Keyser's, 167 Liberty street.

THE ONLY PLACE IN THE CITY TO GET PECK'S IMPALPABLE DENTIFRICE,

The components of this Powder are strictly free from siliceous matter, and are entirely soluble in the fluids of the mouth. Especial care is taken to reduce the powder to the finest degree of comminution. Under these conditions it is a perfect Preservative for the Teeth, being sufficiently hard to reduce the tartar formations without at all affecting the enamel. The powder should be used at least once a day. Also, fresh Drugs and Patent Medicines of all kinds sold at the very lowest prices.

PREVENTINE MEDICATION.

A radical change has been introduced in the practice of medicine. Physicians have ceased to torture and prostrate their patients. Instead of pulling down, they build up; instead of assaulting nature, they assist her. Cupping, leeching, blistering, venesection, calomel, antimony, stupifying narcotics, and rasping purgatives, once the favorite resources of the faculty, are now rarely resorted to even by the most dogmatic members of the profession. The old creed was that disease was something which must be expelled by violent artificial means, irrespective of the wear and tear of the vital organization in the process. The new creed recognizes the improvement of the general health as essential to the cure of all local ailments. Hence it is that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the most potent vegetable tonic that pharmacy has ever brought to the assistance of nature in her struggles with disease, has been cordially approved by practitioners of the modern school. It is pleasant to reflect that reason and philosophy have at last been victorious over the errors of the past, and that thousands and tens of thousands of human beings are alive and well to-day who would indubitably be mouldering in their graves had they been subjected to the pains and penalties which were deemed orthodox and indispensable thirty or forty years ago.

Preventive medication was scarcely thought of then; but now it is considered of paramount importance, and the celebrity of the standard invigorant, alterative and restorative of the age, (a title which Hostetter's Bitters have fairly earned by their long career of success,) is mainly due to its efficiency as a protective preparation.

A course of the Bitters is urgently recommended as a safe and certain antidote to intermittent and remittent fevers, diarrhea, dysentery, and other maladies.

THE DAILY GAZETTE.

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 2, 1871.

The local demand for money continues active without unusual pressure. While the banks and larger discount houses have found it necessary to decline considerable amounts of satisfactory paper, private lenders have been taking at fair rates most of the strictly first class paper offered them.

A dull stock market is reported—mainly in consequence of the scarcity of popular investments. The bonds of our local railroads have been advanced to such prices that investors are turning their attention to other quarters for something quite as good, and more lucrative. Robinson Brothers offer them the 1st mortgage bonds of the West Wisconsin Railroad as fully meeting both conditions. These bonds commend themselves to public confidence. They are the first mortgage upon a short cut, through line between Milwaukee and St. Paul, the most direct route, and the shortest by many miles between Chicago and the great Northern Pacific Road. The bonds bear 7 per cent payable in Gold in the cities of London and New York, and are offered at 90 and accrued interest.

The New York market is a shade weaker in Gold and Governments.

The Railway list is changeable, higher in some instances and lower in others. The speculative movement halts for some unexplained reason—probably the outside public have taken less interest in the bull movement than was lately reported, and the process of unloading upon the innocents is proving less easy than was hoped for.

Subscriptions for the new loan are not coming in to the satisfaction of the Secretary. Investors are waiting to learn the programme from May 1st and onward before making any changes.

NEW YORK, May 2, 1871.

Gold opened at 111⅜, and sold down to 111⅛ and closed dull at 111⅛. Loans were made at 1 to 3 per cent. Clearings, $33,000,000. Exports to-day, $144,030. Shipments, for to-morrow are estimated at $500,000. Governments continue firm. Stock market dull and barely steady in the morning, with the exception of the Reading and North Western, which are strong. In the morning the whole market turned on Lake Shore, which declined from 110⅛ to 108⅛, and afterwards partly recovered the decline. In the afternoon the temper of the speculation was affected by the purchase of North Western shares, which advanced to 86⅞ for common and 98⅞ for preferred, thereby imparting a firm tone to the market generally. The market closed dull and firm, with the exception of North Western and Pacific Mail, which were active and strong. Money easy at 4 to 6 per cent. State Bonds dull, without decided change.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 2, 1871.

APPLE BUTTER—Sales of prime, in crocks and kegs, at 70@75 per gallon.

ASHES—Common Soda, 3⅞@4; refined do, 4⅛; Pots 7⅛@7⅞; Pearls, 9@9⅛.

APPLES—Season almost over and the market almost bare particularly of anything good and common apples are slow sale. We continue to quote fair to medium at $4@5 per bbl, and prime to choice at $6@7.

BUTTER—Under the influence of continued large receipts and only a moderate demand, the market is dull and weak and holders are all anxious to realize, being apprehensive of a still further decline. We now quote at 23@25 for good to strictly prime, and 20 for fair. The great proportion of the receipts now consist of strictly fresh butter, and to this may be attributed the recent sharp decline. For common and inferior, there is very little inquiry and it is hard to sell at any price. It looks now as if we would have cheap butter for the next month.

BROOM CORN—Is quiet and unchanged; sales at 4@6 cts per lb, according to quality.

BEANS—Dull; $1,50@2,00 per bushel.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 28@30 cts.

CHEESE—Sales of new Ohio Cheese at 14@16, as to quality. Prime old York State Goshen, 17⅞@18.

CARBON OIL—Is quiet and unchanged; standard brands, 21@21⅛c, in a jobbing way—small lots, 22⅛@23.

CORNMEAL—Demand very light and prices unchanged; small sales at 90 cts per bushel.

CANDLES—Quoted at 12 cts for mould, and 19 for star.

CANNED GOODS—Tomatoes, $2,70@2,75 per dozen; peaches, $3,75 per dozen in 3-lb cans and $2,50 for 2-lb. Winslow's Corn, $2,75@3 per dozen.

CEMENT—Louisville, $2,50@2,75 per bbl; Johnstown, $2,25; Rosendale, $4,00@4,50; Calcined Plaster, $4,50; Land Plaster, $3,50@3,75.

DRIED FRUIT—Apples continue dull with a good supply, particularly of the commoner grades—really prime bright apples are scarce; may be quoted at 4@7 cts. Peaches quiet and unchanged; 10@10⅞ for quarters; 11@12c for mixed, and 13@14 for halves.

EGGS—Continue dull and weak, and the arrivals though not heavy, seem to be on the increase; we now give 15c, as the ruling quotation, though we did hear of a sale at 14⅛, and another offer to sell at 14c. Last week commission men entertained hopes that they would be able to realize 17c this week, but they have been badly disappointed.

FEATHERS—Prime geese feathers are scarce and in demand, with sales to the trade at 73@74—usual advance for small lots.

FLOUR—Continues dull and rather weak, though as yet there has been no actual or general decline in this market. We continue to quote at $6,75@7,00 for fair to good spring extras; $7,25 for choice Minnesota baker's flour; $6,75@7,00 for good red winter wheat; and $7,25@7,50 for white. Rye Flour, for small lots in store, $6,00.

GRAIN—The receipts of Wheat are increasing, and, in consequence, the mills are becoming bearish and are asking for concessions, to which, as yet, holders have refused to accede; we continue to quote at $1,35@1,42 for common to prime red and $1,45@1,52 for white. Oats generally are reported dull, though there is no disposition manifested to make concessions in order to effect sales, and at present prices the margin is very fine; 58 is about all that can be obtained for round lots, on track or wharf, while, at the same time, they can scarcely be laid down here below that figure. The low prices east, precluding shipments, is not without its effect here. Corn is quiet and unchanged, 68 for mixed ear (in bulk), 70 for mixed shelled and 72@73 for prime yellow. Rye is unchanged at $1—a round lot might bring $1,05. Barley quiet and unchanged at 80@85 for spring and 90@95 for fall.

GROCERIES—Coffee, dull, and an abundant stock in every market for the wants of trade. In the finer grades there is little if any diminution in values, but for medium Rios the holder freely make a concession to make sales. The cost of importation is beyond the price at which the bean is selling, and it is difficult to tell what is in the future—with the European markets open freely to trade, coffee would advance. The troubles in France stop trade in that direction, and throws a larger share into our lap—hence an easy market. Sugars—Raws have taken an upward movement, and, within a few days, fully ⅛c per lb has been realized by holders whose operations have been slightly checked by buyers declining to take hold. Refined Sugars and Syrups are in full sympathy with Raws and are held firmly at our quotations. The eastern market is in an excited state to-day. Rice—Carolina is held by eastern owners at 9⅛c for choice—Ragoon at 7@7⅛. The lower grades of Carolina will be kept down by Ragoon—the higher grades will maintain their present position.

COFFEE—Fancy Rio, 20⅛; Prime, 18⅛; Good, 17⅛; Fair, 16⅛; Roasting, 16@16⅛.

SYRUPS AND DRIPS—White Honey, 72; Havemyer & Elders, 72; Silver Drips, 60; Loverings, 64; other grades, 45@55.

SUGARS—Choice New Orleans, 11⅛; prime, 10⅛ good, 10; fully fair, 10; Porto Rico Sugars 10⅛@11⅛; Cuba, 10@11; Demarara, 11⅛@12⅛.

REFINED SUGARS—Hard Sugars, 13⅛; A Coffee, 12⅛; "B," 12⅛; Extra C, 12⅛; C. yellow 12⅛.

MOLASSES—New Orleans, choice, 70; prime, 68; good, 65.

TEAS—Fancy Young Hyson, $1 40; Good, $1 10; Fair, $1. Lower grades down to 70cts. G. P. Fancy, $1 50; good, $1 25; fair, $1 10; Imperial Fancy, $1 40; good. $1 25; fair. $1; Oolong fancy, $1 25; good, 80cts: fair. 60@70c; Souchong fancy, $1 20; good, 90c; fair, 70@80c, Japan Fancy, $1; good, 90c; fair, 75c.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 10c; prime, 9⅛c; good, 9c.

SPICES—Grain Pepper, 22c. Pimento, 17c. Cloves, 20c. Cassia, 55c.

FOREIGN FRUITS—Currants, 11⅛@12 cents. Prunes, 12⅛c. Valencia Raisins, 15c. Layer Raisins, $3,25 per box.

HAY—Baled is in rather better demand but unchanged; sales on wharf at $14@16. Loose from country wagons, $14@20, as to quality.

HEMP—Sales at $1,75 per ton; single bale lots, 9 cts per lb.

HUSKS—Quoted at 2⅛@2⅛ cts.

HIDES—Green salted (all weights) 10⅛@11⅛; green butchers (cow and steer) 7@8; green salted kip 14@16; do calf, 16@18 Dry.

LIME—Sales of Cleveland at $2,25 per bbl and eastern at $1.75.

MAPLE SYRUP—Sales reported at $1,60@1.79 in gallon jugs.

MILL FEED—Sales of Bran in store, at $1,40@1,50, and Middlings at $1,60@1,80.

OILS—Extra No. 1 Lard Oil, 95@98; No. 2 do, 67. Linseed Oil, $1,03@1,05.

PROVISIONS—Plain shoulders, 8⅛@8⅞; Sugar Cured do, 9⅜@10; Rib. Sides, 10⅛; Clear do, 11; Plain Sugar Cured Hams, 14⅛—Canvassed do, 15⅛. Lard, in tcs, 11⅞; in kegs and buckets, 13⅛ Dried Beef, 18⅛@19. Mess Pork, $20.

PEANUTS—Demand fair at the recent advance, 8⅛@9 cts.

PEAS—Sales $1,75 per bushel.

POSTS—Sales cedar posts at 45@50 cts each.

POTATOES—There is no falling off in the receipts, but with a continued steady demand, particularly for the better qualities, prices are still maintained. Prime Lake Shore Peach Blows, $1,10 in bulk, $1,15 sacked and $1,25 for small lots, in store. Iowa and Illinois Peach Blows, $1 in bulk and $1,05 sacked.

SEEDS—There is very little doing in seeds of any kind; Clover and Timothy are almost out of season, while the market is almost bare of Flax Seed—the latter would sell at $2,20@2,25

SOAPS—Rosin, 3⅛@5 cts; Chemical Olive, 7⅛; Crampton's, 10; Wax, 8; Babbitts, 11; Woman's Friend, 9⅛; Dobbins, 14⅛; Kitchen Crystal, 10; Colgate's Palm, $4,75.

SUMAC—Sales Tennessee Sumac at 4⅛ cts.

TALLOW—Rendered, 8@8⅛.

WILLOWS—Sales Kentucky willows at 10.

PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, TUESDAY, May 2, 1871.

The announcement of an advance in the rates of freight on crude oil of 25 cents per barrel, created quite a commotion in oil circles to-day, and right on the heels of this came a report that the rates from the oil regions to the seaboard had been reduced 30 cts per bbl, footing 55 cts per bbl against Pittsburgh. As might be expected, the reduction from the oil regions to the east, stimulated the market considerably, as the reduced cost of transportation was immediately added on to the price of oil, and, in consequence, we have an advance of 20 cts per bbl reported on the creek to-day. From this it will be seen that the refining interest of Pittsburgh is becoming more and more embarrassed; it was bad enough prior to this bad arrangements in regard to freights, but now it is still worse. It is reported that the Penna. Central has, or is about to reduce the freight on refined going eastward 25 cts per bbl; this of course, is something, but it is not sufficient to offset the advance on the Valley Road together with the increased price of oil on the creek, consequent upon the reduction in freights of 30 cts per bbl from there eastward. The situation may be stated thus, an increase of at least one cent per gallon in the price of crude, and an improvement in the price of refined of an eighth of a cent, and, at the same time, it is well known that the latter was much lower relatively than the former prior to the changes in freights above noted.

CRUDE.

There was not a single sale reported, and there are no established quotations. Seller May nominal at 10⅛@11, and the same figures will answer for seller until July. Sales on lower creek reported at $4,30@4,35.

REFINED.

May last half 23⅛ bid; June, 24 bid; July, 24⅛; May to August, 23⅛ for May and an advance of half a cent for each subsequent month, June to August, 24⅛. No sales; there was considerable inquiry at a slight advance but no sellers.

—The New Orleans Republican publishes the particulars of the burning of the Belle of Alton at that city on the 28th of March, and introduces the following statement of Joseph Nixon, her former mate: Nixon had only been under arrest a short time when he requested to be brought before the superintendent of police; that he desired to make a clear and voluntary statement of the whole facts in connection with the burning of the steamer Belle of Alton. He stated that William Marsh, an engineer, had said he was part owner of the boat, approached him on the 27, and said: "I wish this boat was burned; she is eating herself up, and I have some money in her, and that is the only way I can get it." Marsh asked Nixon to do the work, stating that the old man (meaning the captain) wants it done, and so does the rest of them (meaning the other owners). Nixon declined, saying that was a job he did not like; that he had better get some one else. Marsh replied no, that he had known Nixon many years, and had full confidence in him, and that he would pay him three hundred dollars as soon as the work was done. Nixon agreed. The next day the captain had his effects moved off the boat, and the books were carried ashore. Then Mr. Marsh said to Nixon: "Let her go to-night." That night, between 3 and 4 A. M., Nixon set the boat on fire abaft of the ladies cabin. The fire spread rapidly. Nixon ran to the texas to get some clothing. Then he ran and got a bucket and threw some water on the fire, to make a show as if trying to put out the fire. He then went down stairs, where he met the watchman, who, he says, was awake and on duty. The next morning at 10 o'clock the captain visited the wreck of the boat, and said: "She is gone, is she? Where did she catch?" After making these remarks he walked off. The next day Marsh gave Nixon $100, and told him he would give him the other $200 very soon; but Marsh went off to St. Louis. Detective Smith followed Marsh to St. Louis and arrested him. Capt. Bruner made fast time to St. Louis also. He was there time enough to have an interview with Marsh as soon as the latter was arrested.

—The Sioux City Journal of the 21st says: The Ida Stockdale is weather-bound between here and Onawa. There was no material change in the stage of the river yesterday. The Carrie V. Kountz passed Plattsmouth at 2 a. m. yesterday for this port and Fort Benton. The Ackley passed Fort Randall on Tuesday at 1:15 p. m., four and a half days out from Sioux City.

—Lieut. Gov. Powers, of Mississippi, in the absense of Gov. Alcorn, has vetoed what the Vicksburg Herald calls "the swindling bill to give 200,000 acres of land to Capt. DeHaven's new fangled, double-ended, back-action, non-explosive, can't-sink steamboat!"

—A rumor was prevalent along the wharves at Louisville Friday that the Commercial met with a mishap by sinking one of her barges at the mouth of Blue river, and that a considerable amount of corn would be damaged thereby.

—A Memphis dispatch says: The Mollie Ebert passed up, five days out from New Orleans. She has 936 bars of railroad iron, and added 150 bales of cotton here.

—The second engineer of steamer Merrill lost the toes of one foot by getting them caught in the machinery. So says the La Crosse Democrat.

—The wharf committee is engaged in revising the wharfage ordinance of Evansville, Good.

—The John Kilgour will be sold at Shippingport on Thursday next.

—The Glencoe turned back from Evansville for New Orleans.

GRATES.
GRATES.
Keep Your Houses Clean,
AND
BY USING THE
Wellman Patent Reflector
STOVE AND GRATE.
Which Stand Without a Rival.
The WELLMAN STOVE is furnished with the "REFLECTOR GRATE," and possesses all the advantages of an open fire place; it is specially adapted to houses where the flues are too small to admit a grate, and affords all the comforts of a CHEERFUL OPEN FIRE.
1st. As a radiator of heat it has double the intensity of any other grate.
2d. It is unquestionably the most cleanly—no soot or ashes escaping into the room—which, in the ordinary Grate, proves so detrimental to carpets and furniture.
3d. The combustion is perfect. There is no waste in unburnt cinders—every ounce of the fuel is so completely consumed, that nothing remains but the finest ashes.
4th. As an economizer of fuel—there being an actual saving of at least 25 per cent.
5th. It is highly ornamental.
6th. It is set so deep in the chimney, that it is much safer, and also less liable to puff in windy weather.
7th. A slight motion of the shaker cleanses the entire fire, and causes it to burn with great brilliancy and intensity of heat.
Samples may be seen and references had at the store of W. BARNES, corner of 3d avenue and Market street, Pittsburgh; W. F. GOODWIN, 66 Federal street, Allegheny, or at the FOUNDRY, corner Duquesne Way and Water street, Pittsburgh.
Parties who are building, or who contemplate changing Grates, are respectfully requested to examine "The Wellman." Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases.

"The little church around the corner" has become famous as a designation for the church in which all the people may worship, just as the large clothing store on the corner—southeast corner of Wood street and Fifth avenue, Messrs. Urling, Follansbee & Co.—has become famous as the establishment where the people who wish to get neat fitting gagments, at moderate rates, can be supplied.

Sudden Death—Inquest.—Coroner West held an inquest on the body of Samuel P. Blanchard, who dropped dead at his residence, No. 25 River avenue, Allegheny, about one o'clock on Monday afternoon. A post mortem examination was held by Dr. Lazear, who gave it as his opinion that death was caused by heart disease. The deceased was aged thirty-one years, and leaves a wife but no children.

Fine Millinery, etc.—We direct the attention of our lady readers to the card of Mrs. M. Christy, No. 48 Federal street, Allegheny, who keeps one of the largest and finest stocks of millinery goods, consisting of bonnets and hats of the latest styles, Ladies' suits, French flowers and feathers, and fancy goods and laces, to be found anywhere. We advise all of our lady friends to give Mrs. Christy a call, and we can assure them they will be greatly pleased and benefitted.

A Meeting was held on Saturday at No. 100 Fourth avenue, for the purpose of organizing a department of the Life Association of America. This is a most important movement. Many of our thoughtful citizens have been led to consider the desirability of transacting this life insurance business at home instead of contributing so largely to New York and Hartford companies.

We have many Local Fire Insurance companies, in flourishing condition and most excellently managed, but to organize a Local Life Insurance company seems to have been a more difficult matter.

It would seem as if Life Insurance had to be transacted on a National basis, so as to have the advantages of a diffusion of risks, and a sufficiently widespread connection to a fair basis of average. Most of the small Local companies are in a struggling condition.

The Life Association of America seems to meet this case. It might be described as a National Association of Local Insurance Companies, combining for strength, yet retaining all the advantages of local organization and management. The funds are invested here from year to year, under the direction of the Trustees, giving a tangible kind of guarantee of safety, that, no New York can give, nearly a hundred of our leaping citizens have connected themselves with this institution, and a Board of Directors has been elected, whose influence should be strong in this community.

Sheep Shearing.

At a late meeting of the Wool Growers' Association the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved—That we hold our annual shearing at the house of Isaac Rankin, on Washington avenue, on Thursday, May 18th.

Resolved—That we cordially invite manufacturers, agents or dealers to exhibit on the grounds their latest improvements in agricultural or labor-saving implements.

L. D. SAUTERS, Sec.

Almost Serious Accident.

Yesterday afternoon a little boy named Gray about ten years old was playing on the bank of the river below South avenue, Allegheny city, when a portion of the bank gave way, precipitating him into the river. Mrs. Cornelius, who witnessed the accident ran down and got aboard of a raft lying near by and as the child floated past caught and took him up to her house. After drying his clothes she sent him to his home on Rebecca street. Had not Mrs. C. been so near at hand, the probabilities are that the poor little fellow would have been drowned.

Presbyterial.

The Monongahela Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church held a special meeting yesterday in the Fourth U. P. church of this city. Presbytery, on petition of the pastor and concurrence of the congregation, dissolved the pastoral relation between Rev. J. M. Cockins and the Fourth U. P. church. Mr. Cockins, at his own request, received a certificate of dismissal to the General Assembly of the Re-United Presbyterian Church.

Several young gentlemen delivered sermons before Presbytery as specimens of "progress." Calls were presented to Mr. W. H. McMasters from the congregations of Sewickley and West Newton, and Bethel, Westmoreland county. We understand that the call from Bethel was accepted.

Merited Compliment.

The Harrisburg Telegraph of Monday pays the following compliment to Hon. R. W. Mackey.

To-day R. W. Mackey, Esq., resumes, after a year's absence from the office, the responsible duties of Treasurer of the State of Pennsylvania. We hazard nothing in saying that the State will be benefited by the change, if benefit can accrue from an intelligent and faithful performance of the functions of the office. During his first term he won high praise deservedly as an able financier, and his integrity was so well established that very general regret was felt when he was temporarily placed on the retired list. We congratulate the people of the Commonwealth that their monetary affairs have again been placed in his charge; and we further congratulate them that that tried, faithful and efficient officer, Father Nicholson, than whom a more honest and honorable gentleman does not exist, is to resume his old position as Cashier under Mr. Mackey. With these two gentlemen as guardians of the public treasure, the people need labor under no apprehension of peculation or fraud of any kind.

Railway Crossings.

We referred, yesterday, to an ordinance passed more than a year ago by the Allegheny Councils, requiring gates to be erected parallel with the streets at all the railway crossings.

We were shown to-day a diagram of an ingenious devise for a gate, the invention of our old friend Michael Daly, the veteran stocking weaver, by which, a post being erected on either side of the street, a folding gate is so adjusted as to fold up like a lady's fan. It is thrown across the way, or returned to its place in a recess of the post or column, by means of a pulley, easily operated by a man or boy. We commend Mr. Daly's invention to the attention of the railway authorities, with the suggestion that these or some other like gates should be erected across as well as parallel with the streets, and each one of them carefully attended by a trusty man or boy. The safety of human life imperatively demands protection from the numerous casualties to which the street travel is constantly exposed in the present condition of the various crossings on our chief thoroughfares. Mr. Daly says if two or four gates should be found necessary at the same crossing, but one man would be required to attend them all.

Shall Erie Be Disgraced!—The Great Prize Fight.

A considerable delegation of New York sporting men, headed by Jim Cusick, arrived at Erie on Sunday, to effect the preliminary arrangements for the prize fight which is to come off between Jem Mace and Joe Coburn on the 11th inst. We learn from a gentleman who came from Erie yesterday, that the ground selected for the combat is Long Point, on the Canadian side. A steamer has been chartered at Buffalo, which will stop at Erie, where the crowd will rendezvous, and take the party on board. Special trains are also chartered from different points. The object of the principals in selecting Erie as the rendezvous is to avoid molestation from the New York officials, the Pennsylvania laws being exceedingly lax concerning prize fighting. It is expected there will be upward of 10,000 people in attendance. The good people of Erie were somewhat astounded at the visit of the "roughs" on Sunday, and double-locked their doors and doubled their police force during their sojourn. The trainers of Mace are Jim Cusick and his cousin, Tooley; and Mace having won the toss, his representatives select the battle ground. The stakes are $2,000 and the championship.

CRUSHED BY THE CARS.

Frightful Accident—Probably Fatal.

Last evening a painful accident occurred near the Duquesne Depot, Liberty street, which in all probability will result fatally. A laborer named Thomas Joyce was the victim. He was sitting on the block or bumper at the end of the track on Water street, just above the Ferry landing, when a train of cars was backed down. Failing to notice the approach of the cars, he was caught between the block and the bumper and crushed in a frightful manner.

Surgical aid was procured in a few moments, and the injured man attended to, after which he was removed to his residence on Point alley, where he lay, at last accounts, in a very critical condition. Joyce is a married man having a wife and four children. Is is thought he cannot recover.

CORONER'S INQUEST.

Verdict in the Patterson Case—The West Pennsylvania R. R. Censured.

The Coroner's jury, empannelled to inquire into the cause of the death of the late R. B. Patterson, Esq., met, pursuant to adjournment, at the Mayor's office, Allegheny, and after hearing the testimony of W. D. Peebles, D. P. Hatch and John Francis, all of whom have fallen into the same man-trap within the last two years, rendered the following VERDICT.

That deceased came to his death on the night of the 30th of April by falling from the sidewalk of Sandusky street into a hole of ten feet depth, and that the West Pennsylvania Railroad is responsible for negligence in not having a protection at the point where the accident occurred.

We find, further, that in respect to this matter, the West Pennsylvania Railroad Company has violated an ordinance of the city of Allegheny relating to protection at railroad crossings.

"BOB."

The Notorious Dealer in Counterfeit Money—All About the Man and His Operations—How He Worked and How He Was Caught—The Most Important Arrest Yet Made—The Particulars.

Yesterday morning there was unusual happiness in our United States official circles superinduced by the arrival of an important personage, whose presence here has long been desired.

To thoroughly understand the general joy, our readers should recall the operations in this vicinity last fall and during the winter by dealers in counterfeit money, the particulars of which were given at the time. It will be remembered that this particular section seemed to have been chosen as a special field of operations by a gang of counterfeiters, who pushed their work quietly, but in most instances only too effectually. The district had been almost rid of them, when this and aroused the detectives to renewed exertion. The bills were generally on the Farmers and Mechanics National Bank of Poughkeepsie—a name which some of our retail storekeepers and saloon proprietors have especial reason to remember with sadness. The detectives succeeded in tracing the dealers, and with great difficulty and energy pursued the trails until a number of the most prominent were arrested, some of whom were tried at the last term of Court, and have gone to try the virtues of Penitentiary life; others are

IN JAIL AWAITING TRIAL.

In thus pursuing their work the authorities learned more particularly of the operations of one whom they had long been looking for, one John B. Altic, or "Bob" a gentleman who was possessed of a peculiar faculty for changing his name and who rejoiced in an unlimited supply of cognomens. "Bob" however was the favorite by which he was known and "Bob" it was whom the detectives were anxious to see, for he was considered one of the most daring and successful dealers in the Union, and second only in importance to the manufacturer.

"BOB'S" PLAN OF OPERATIONS

was that of a seller of the "queer." He had routes carefully laid out through Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio, West Virginia, Indiana and Illinois, which he traversed regularly, and over which he monthly distributed about $50,000 worth of counterfeit money. He received his stock from Philadelphia, from the manufacturers there; but to avoid detection it was not given him in the city. He boarded the train when starting out upon a route, and somewhere between Mantua and Lancaster, was met by a woman who always had his carpet sack; in it the stuff was placed, and thus he was stocked.

He supplied all the other dealers and shovers in the State and along his routes with the money, and in quantities to suit—they which rendered the possibility of detection more remote. It was "safer" Bob says than sending it through the mails or by express. With great boldness he seemed to pursue his vocation and yet with such consummate cunning that he alluded the most vigilant officials for years.

At last, however, District Attorney Swoope, in whose district he had commenced to operate boldly last fall, obtained a clue which connected him with some operations about this vicinity, and at once the case was brought before the Grand Jury, when a true bill was found against him, and a Bench warrant issued for his arrest. A duplicate of the warrant was placed in the hands of every detective in the secret service division, and some with members of the police force in the large cities along his line of travel; as his portrait did not occupy its appropriate place a pictorial representation of "Bob" could not be obtained, but he was well known and a minute description of him accompanied each warrant.

It had been ascertained that he resided in Lawrenceville when the last Directory was made, and that he was known there by the name of Russell. He had a wife and three children, whose place of residence was on Forty-fifth street, but he himself was seldom at home.

Some time in December Detective Benson, chief of the service, ascertained that "Bob" was in the city, and that he had secured a box at the East Liberty Postoffice for his letters. A conference was then had with District Attorney Swoope, which resulted in the detailing of an officer to watch the place and arrest any man who received letters from the box, if his personal appearance at all accorded with that given of "Bob." If another person called, he was only to be followed, and the man to whom he gave the letters arrested.

The detective started on his mission, but FAILED THROUGH A BLUNDER.

While he was on guard a young man called, received the letters, and was immediately secured by the zealous official. The arrested party was about as much like the man that was wanted as the moon is like green cheese, but the detective was too excited at the "haul" he thought he was making to detect the difference. Meanwhile "Bob," who had been secluded about a hundred yards away, observed the transaction and disappeared. The young man arrested proved to be William Ankenny, a "shover." He was jailed, but a few days before his trial finding no help from the gang he made a statement, telling all he knew. Among other things he said, at the time of his arrest he had just made a bargain for $400 of the stuff, and that "Bob" had

WITH HIM ABOUT $20,000

—this was in a carpet sack which he held in his hand when he saw Ankenny arrested.

The letters which were secured with Ankenny were orders from various parties for "cattle." Various amounts and varying in denomination through all the grades of one, two, five, ten and twenty "years old." In some of the letters "wine" was the cant term instead of "cattle,"—but counterfeit money was the translation.

These letters gave further clue to "Bob" and his friends, and led to the arrest of many of the latter. And here came in a feature which did much toward the final capture of "Bob." Among those arrested was one of the male friends of this female, in whom she felt a particular interest. The woman was young. She was very intelligent, shrewd and calculating—a perfect lady in demeanor, possessed of a well cultivated mind, and not a with behind any of her sisters in that peculiar gift of determination which always enables a woman to ultimately accomplish her purposes. She was at once interested when her friend was arrested, and from her the authorities received information which greatly aided them in their efforts, and to whom they are largely indebted for success. She is to appear as a witness before the Court, however, and until then it might not be proper to detail what information was received from her—all given, of course, in the hope of mitigating the punishment of her friend.

With the information thus obtained from all sources, the efforts of the detectives were redoubled, and "Bob" was being enclosed in a net from which ESCAPE WAS IMPOSSIBLE.

Several very important arrests were made of men in his confidence, and only next to himself in importance, but he managed always to elude the pursuers and kept on his way. Three different descents were made on his house on Forty-fifth street by Detective Render, but he was never there. The family at last moved from Pittsburgh and were traced to Parker's Landing. The house there was watched but "Bob" kept out of that vicinity also, and the detectives were baffled. Other arrests were being made in the meantime, and each time the until finally one John H. Teale, owner of the Cumberland Valley Mills and an extensive grain dealer, was arrested in Harrisburgh. Teale, like the others, turned and became communicative. He informed detective Benson that he had purchased of "Bob," and at last one day told the officer he had seen "Bob" promenading in Franklin Square, Philadelphia. The detective at once proceeded to the place and arrested the man, on the afternoon of Sunday, April 23d.

The prisoner was indignant at the accusation, and asserted that his name was Henry P. Morton. Detective Benson, with "a smile that was childlike and bland," nevertheless took him into custody. He had stopped at the Black Bear Hotel in Philadelphia, and had registered his name as Henry P. Morton, but the detective was satisfied that and that was sufficient to make him hold on. When his baggage was searched no bogus money was found, but numerous letters containing orders for the "cattle" when arrested. He had in his posession a Pittsburgh paper containing a report of the trial of Abraham Shaffer, who had been one of his customers, and is now across the river.

The prisoner was taken to Newark, N. J., and committed to jail. He remained there until Monday, when Detective W. W. Kennoch started with him for Pittsburgh. He arrived here yesterday morning on the Pacific express—and that explains the joy of the U. S. authorities.

BEFORE THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

When "Bob" was brought into the office of District Attorney, Swoope yesterday that official was absent in the Grand Jury Room but was summoned, and came in a few minutes.

"Well Robert" facetiously observed Mr. Swoope as he entered, "I've been looking for you for some time. I wanted to see you."

"Ye-e-e-s," replied Robert trembling like an aspen, "I suppose so; you're Mr. Swoope."

"That's my name," was the answer. "I've only got one name, and in that, Bob, you have the advantage of me."

"Bob" didn't seem to relish the joke, and kept silent until the District-Attorney again addressed him, and said: "Well 'Bob' of course you know why you are such an object of interest to me. I am now anxious that you are here to have your case fixed up as soon as possible. We have only one week of Court this time, and I want you disposed of before the close. You will need some legal counsel, and there are three hundred and fifteen lawyers in Pittsburgh. If you select any of them I'll send word to the one.

"BOB" SELECTS COUNSEL.

"Bob" mused a few minutes and then said: "I suppose I must have counsel, as I am to be tried. I guess Mr. Carnahan (former United States Attorney) is as good as any, and I'll take him."

"Very well," said Mr. Swoope, "I'll let him know and he can call on you."

The commitment by this time was made out and the prisoner given into the custody of the officer who took him to prison. Before locking him up the officer searched his carpet sack but found nothing in it.

WHO HE IS.

"Bob" the prisoner has innumerable aliases but his real name is said to be Lewis M. Roberts. He is a man about forty years of age, rough in speech as well as appearance, and small in stature and stoutly built. It is said that he has put upon the market almost a million of dollars of counterfeit money since he commenced the business. He was known throughout the Union as one of the very boldest operators, and most success ful. At five different times he has been arrested but always bribed his way through, never having been locked up until this time. Since the last few arrests of his chief customers about here, Minehart, Dodds and Spratley, he has kept aloof from Pittsburgh, and evidently was afraid to come here. He says he is worth about $12,000, but others say his wealth amounts to $50,000 at least—all made in his nefarious business. Notwithstanding his life, he is a great coward, and, when arrested, trembled and was exceedingly alarmed.

HIS LOVE FOR SWOOPE.

He was quite communicative at first and freely talked of his operations, until he discovered he was to be tried in this district. He was anxious to have a trial in New York or New Jersey, and remarked that he might as well "go below at once as be tried before Swoope." He talks of pleading guilty when his case is called, evidently believing that he has no hope this side of the Penitentiary. He talked a great deal about being tried here, and seemed to fear that worse than anything else.

Coming towards Pittsburgh he was very talkative and beguiled the journey by relating to his attendant, Detective Kennoch, stories of his operations, in which he freely named among his customers, lawyers, physicians, merchants, politicians, Congressmen and all classes. He says he intended to leave the place on Monday morning if he had not been arrested on Sunday and would have given his old field of operations a wide berth. He evidently had become alarmed at the pursuit, and was attempting to get away. "The whole thing," he says, "commenced to tumble in, and it all falls on me." He speaks bitterly of the men who betrayed him, and if he should happen to get out again would try to make them feel his wrath. But of this there is little fear. It is probable he will be tried this week, and from the present outlook the Penitentiary will be his home for the remainder of his days.

CREDIT ACCORDED.

The arrest is the most important which has been made in District Attorney Swoope's baliwick since his introduction into office, and he certainly deserves the highest praise for the energy and ability with which he has managed the case. Detective Benson also shares in the glory, as he was indefatigable and pursued the trail with a persistence to which much of the success is due.

All that remains to do now is, to convict the man and the State will be rid of one of the greatest scoundrels it has ever held.

Glitch Sixth ward; E Callahan, First ward; G. Froelich, Sixth ward; C. Gerst, Third ward; Henry Weckson, Seventh ward; J. Sigmund, Third ward; K. Keely, Third ward.

Pittsburgh.—McCullough & Smith, Fourth ward; T. D. Casey & Co., Fourth ward; Kiser & Scandrett, Third ward; Rodelheimer & Affolder, First ward; J. Keller, Third ward; P. Geisheimer, Ninth ward; F. Weidmeyer, First ward; E. Steifle, seventh ward; P. Costillo, Seventeenth ward; W. Reid, Ninth ward; N. Adrian, Ninth ward; Thomas Durkin, First ward; Ed. Newell, Plum; Mary Betzhoover, Lower St. Clair; L. Hoofman, Lower St Clair; F. Wolff, McClure; C. Myers, Indiana, J. A. Baumgartel McCandless; Jno. Lunch, Hampton; J. Craney, Sixth ward; F. Gritsch, Fifth ward; E. Sweeny, Ninth ward; John Hamilton, Sixth ward; J. Brosie, Sixth ward; Ch. Geib, Third ward; J. P. Wacher, Fourth ward; J. Doench, Sixth ward; A. G. Ehlers, Fourth ward.

The following cases were then heard. In cases not otherwise noted there were no decisions:

Louis Sterne, Sixth ward, Allegheny; Jas. Donnelly, Twelfth ward, Pittsburgh; Fred. Werner, Third ward, Allegheny; Matilda McCall, Third ward, Allegheny; Adolph Ludwig, Second ward, Pittsburgh; A. Tutner, Third ward, Allegheny; W. Deitchenmiller, Fifth ward, Allegheny; Hannah Augustine, West Pittsburgh; John Kennedy, Eighth ward, Pittsburgh; Margaret Maginnes, Lower St. Clair township; James Cartwick, East Birmingham; Alice Bendall, Thirteenth ward, Pittsburgh; John Hughes, Ninth ward, Allegheny; Rudolph Runk, Birmingham.

E. Reineman & Sons, Smithfield street have fed so many lawyers and other respectable people that they will doubtless continue.

John Carley of Seventh ward, Pittsburgh, wanted to sell by quart, gallon, barrel and hogshead, and will be permitted to do so.

Jerome Shaffer of Second Ward keeps the St. Cloud Hotel and having all that is necessary will have a favorable decision.

Wm. Shaffer of First ward, John McCambridge of Tenth ward and John O'Donnell of Twenty-third ward, all of Pittsburgh, will have no trouble.

Daniel Malladay of Twelfth ward wanted to sell with other goods. His case is held over.

Peter Ashurst of Second ward, Pittsburgh, brought up a rather poor witness, talked too much, and besides Negley produced a paper (which witness acknowledged as his writing,) asking if a certain $20 had been given him by the "Major," and claiming a dividend therein, just as if a lawyer could be bribed for twenty dollars and then divide. Why don't these attorneys drill their clients and witnesses before they permit them to appear in Court. As it is, Mr. Ashurst's case looks bad.

John Richardson, of Sixth ward, Pittsburgh, had lost an arm in the war, but had rented out too many rooms, and may fail. The Board should look leniently on these old soldiers who have, by war's misfortunes, incapacitated themselves for the active duties of life.

Peter Bomberger, of Seventh ward, and John Smith, of Second ward, both of Allegheny, have a fair show of success.

A. Hoffmann, of Third ward, Allegheny, was sick, but his daughter ably represented him, and will succeed.

Elizabeth Volz, of Third ward, Allegheny.—Commissioners to witness—Is this applicant a lady of good moral character? Answer—Yes. Are you?

That settles it—says Col. Brown.

Stephen Bittner, of Ninth ward, Allegheny, and Casper Schopner, of Sixteenth ward, Pittsburgh, will probably get through.

Frank Blessing, of Second ward, Pittsburgh, had got through nicely, when Mr. Jennings whispered that he was known at the Mayor's office.

Mr. Coyle indignantly resented the innuendo and the Y. M. C. A. will be worsted.

Henry Martin, Fourth ward, Allegheny, and John T. Wolfe are equal to the emergency and will be permitted to go on.

The Board then adjourned for dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the opening of the Court the following decisions were announced:

GRANTED.

Amend & Fairley, Sixth ward, Allegheny; James Patten, Ninth ward, Allegheny; August Marshall, Eighth ward, Allegheny; Elizabeth Hanna, Etna; Michael Lang & Geo. Schmidt, Ninth ward, Pittsburgh; F. Kaisser, Sixth ward, Pittsburgh; Geo. W. Buehler Sixteenth ward, Pittsburgh; John C. Rothe, South Pittsburgh.

M. Powers, of Second ward, Pittsburgh; Mary Cook, of Mifflin township; Thos. Hulings, of Indiana, and P. Zimmerman, of McKeesport, may get a favorable decision from the Board, but the little "William" that is before the Legislature may neutralize their licenses.

C. Feld, East Birmingham, will be successful.

Michael Carter, Seventeenth ward, Pittsburgh, will be permitted to go on.

Geo. Bauman, Shaler township, was getting on well until Negley brought out the fact that some one had fallen out of his window and been killed. Mr. B. should graduate his doses.

Geo. Ribbenbach, Fourth ward, Allegheny, wanted to sell with other goods, and will get through.

C. Baurlein & Bro., of Shaler township, will meet with a favorable reception, even if one of their signers does live in Illinois.

Jas. Ward, North Versailles, and Joseph Schultz, Baldwin, will be well treated by the Board.

Chris. Threnheisen, Baldwin township, had some trouble about citizenship of his signers, and may be compelled to get his signers naturalized.

Robert Cheatham, of Elizabeth, Pat McGreery, of North Versailles, John Davis, Wm. Thorp and Chris. Dierstein, of Mifflin, will meet with an affirmative response.

Henry Millard, Second ward, Pittsburgh, had a little trouble with the temperance folks, who claimed a pending indictment for selling liquor on Sunday. Held over.

J. B. Cherry, First ward, wanted to keep a "drug store," out the Board claimed to have no authority in the premises.

Jas. K. Lanahan, of the St. Louis Hotel, was still indignant from the fact that Mr. O'D. Ross was taken to another house, but was sufficiently able to answer all interrogatories, and will go through.

Nicholas Kunsler, Birmingham, will be happy to-night.

Edward McTirrney, Ormsby, will have to get out a new petition.

Edward Henne, of Third ward, Pittsburgh, was sick and sent his wife, who was a Russian. No interpreter could be found in court. Should have delayed his application until the arrival of the "Grand Duke Alex."

Lawrence Sproul, Sixth ward, Allegheny, and Owen Sullivan, Tenth ward, Pittsburgh, will secure their licences.

John G. Tromell, Seventeenth ward, Pittsburgh, was one room short, and may have to hire an architect to remedy the defect.

John Shaffer of Seventh ward, Pittsburgh, will have to wait for the Commissioners decision.

Martin Frederick of Etna borough had a defective petition. Bad for Mart.

Wm. Wayman of Fourteenth ward, Levi Lewis of Second ward, Pittsburgh, Julius Webber of Ninth ward, Allegheny, and John F. Bader of East Birmingham, are in a fair way to succeed.

Fred. Looker of Third ward, Allegheny, should have more rooms.

John Nusser of Birmingham was known to the Board and will have no trouble.

Francis Kellerman of Fourth ward, Pittsburgh kept boarders—perhaps too many—adjoins Trimble's—that's bad too.

Edwin Seitz of Etna borough had a defective petition. Next.

P. Devlin of Nineteenth ward, Pittsburgh, and Louis Zeller of East Birmingham, will have no difficulty.

Henry Lepier, of the Sixteenth ward, was bounded by two cemetries. Negley admitted that the inhabitants of the neighborhood were sufficient to warrant the licensing of a dozen houses, but doubted whether they were in a condition to patronize them. Mr. L. should move away from the "city of the dead."

Robert Miller, of Third ward, Allegheny, keeps the "Market Exchange" and can go on.

Charles Shambaugh, of Birmingham, had lost a leg in the army and wanted to keep an eating house. Negley should not be so severe on these maimed soldiers.

James C. Frees, of Fifth ward, Pittsburgh, lived away from his tavern and must move in soon or shut up.

Some of the lawyers commenced a game of Battiedor and Shuttlecook, but were interrupted by Col. Joe Brown, who declared that he would not remain if the proceedings of the court were to be turned into a burlesque. The court insisted upon better order and was accommodated.

F. Hampe & Co., of Lower St. Clair township will be kindly received.

Edward Barker, Nineth ward, Pittsburgh, of St. Lawrence Hotel, should get residents of his ward for signers. A witness was called (by whom is unknown) who damaged the case for both sides. Mr. Coyle was rather indignant as he well should be. Get out a new petition.

Chas Kelder, of Fifth ward, Pittsburgh has an indictment against him and must wait.

John Frann, Lower St. Clair township, Henry Bender, Second ward, Pittsburgh and Fred Richtner, of Third ward, Allegheny, will probably keep their houses opened for another year.

Thomas Fielder, of Seventeenth ward, Pittsburgh, was too near the Cemetery. Why don't they move that Cemetery?

Julia Kilgarren, of Sixth ward, Pittsburgh, wanted to keep an eating house and hear favorably from the Commissioners.

The Board then adjourned until this morning, when the wholesale dealers in the seventh list will be first heard. Then the remainder f the fifth and sixth lists.

ALLEGHENY SCHOOLS.

Regular Meeting of the Board of Control—Reports of Committees—Communication Asking for the Establishment of a High School—Miscellaneous Business.

A regular monthly meeting of the Board of School Controllers was held last evening in the Common Council Chamber, City Hall.

In the absence of the President, Mr. Sloan was called to the chair. Mr. Dennison offered the opening prayer.

The roll was then called, when a quorum was found to be present.

Joseph Craig and J. B. Chambers were reported elected by the Local Boards of the Fourth and Sixth wards respectively, to fill the vacancies occasioned by the resignations of R. B. Francis and Dr. Wilson.

A communication was read from Prof. S. A. Neale, which was addressed to the Chairman of the Committee on Colored Schools, stating that at a meeting of the parents in the afternoon at the school, being in attendance at an examination, a number of resolutions were offered expressive of the thanks of the parents for the interest taken by the Directors in the prosperity of their school. Also in refitting another room and furnishing a teacher, so that a better grade can be established for the school. The communication was received and filed.

The Secretary then read the following communication from the Second Ward Local Board, which was signed by every member of the Board:

To the Board of School Controllers:

GENTLEMEN: A meeting of the Second Ward School Board, held last Friday evening, April 28th, the necessity of a High School for this city was strongly urged, and after a full and free discussion, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we petition the Board of Controllers to establish in this city a High School where our sons and daughters can be more thoroughly instructed in the higher branches of an English education.

The following are some of the reasons that have influenced us to make this petition:

1. In all cities and large towns throughout the North such schools exist, Allegheny, from all the information we can obtain, being the only exception.

2. By the establishment of the proposed school we have one of high grade maintained at a moderate expense in our very midst, and our children are thus enabled to obtain a thorough English education under the benign influences of home.

3. Our ward schools do not afford the classification and arrangements by which the higher branches can be successfully taught.

4. By selecting the advanced pupils from the highest departments of the schools in the nine wards of this city, such a classification could be made, and such an adaptation of teachers to this special work that a success far beyond the present would be attained.

5. The benefits to be derived from such a school would, in our judgment, far outweigh the expense.

6. A large number of our intelligent citizens desire such a school to be established.

Mr. Dennison moved that the communication be referred to a special committee of nine, one from each ward, and that the President pro tem, be the chairman of the committee.

After some discussion the motion prevailed, and Messrs. Sloan, Dennison, Torrence, Barker, Parker, Trimble, Haney, McConnell and Jones were appointed the committee.

Mr. Claney moved that the Finance Committee be instructed to procure a safe for the purpose of keeping the records and books of the Board more securely. Carried.

Mr. Claney also moved that the Principals be required to report each month to the Board the number of corporal punishments inflicted during the month, on whom inflicted, the cause, and the implement used.

After considerable discussion, the motion was lost.

Mr. Eaton moved that the Committee and Treasurers and Secretaries report at the next meeting the number of teachers each ward will be allowed the ensuing year. Carried.

Mr. Claney inquired whether a copy of the bill recently passed by the Legislature, establishing the books now in use for three years, had been sent to the board.

As no member of the Board had seen a copy of the bill, Mr. Parks moved that the Secretary be instructed to write on for a copy. Carried:

The Secretary reported that the total enrolment during the past month was 6,472, and the average attendance 5,764. The monthly pay roll amounted to $7,424 50. The amount now deposited in the bank was $419 70.

Mr. Barker moved that the visiting committees be required to report the number of corporal punishments inflicted in their respective schools each month. Carried.

Mr. Eaton offered the following:

Resolved, That the retirement from this Board of R. B. Francis, for ten years an able representative from the Fourth ward, and the greater part of that time the efficient Secretary of this Board, causes a vacancy not easily filled.

Resolved, That his uniform courtesy to his fellow members, his familiarity with our school operations, and his constant and well directed efforts to advance the interests of our public schools, have made his services of great value to this Board, and we hereby express our sincere regret that his removal to another ward deprives us of his valuable services.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted, after which the Board adjourned.

BOARD OF POOR GUARDIANS.

Election of Treasurer—Reports of Farm Superintendent and Physicians—Monthly Supplies.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Guardians of the Poor was held at their office, Fourth avenue, yesterday afternoon.

Minutes of previous meeting read and approved.

ELECTION OF TREASURER.

An election for Treasurer was declared to be the first business in order.

Some discussion took place as to whether this meeting had the legal right to go into an election for Treasurer at this time.

The Secretary, Mr. Fortune, was called upon for information, and read the Act of Assembly authorizing the election of a Treasurer annually.

Mr. Wm. H. Hart was then nominated for the position, and elected by acclamation, to serve till the next annual election of officers, which will take place in February, 1872.

MONTHLY SUPPLIES.

The requisition of Mr. Patterson, Superintendent of the Poor Farm, for the month's supplies was read and referred, with the exception of the request to be allowed to purchase a spring wagon, to the Monthly Committee. That part of the requisition was referred to them to inquire into the necessity for the purchase, to be reported upon at the next meeting of the Board.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

Mr. W. D. Patterson, Superintendent, reported that on April 1st there were 197 inmates in the Alms House—103 males, 94 females. Admitted during the month: males 13, females 11. Deaths and discharges during the month: males 22, females 26, total 38—leaving 221 inmates, males 116, females 105, in the house on April 30th.

There was one birth during the month and three deaths, one from fever, one from consumption and one still born infant.

REPORT OF PHYSICIANS.

Dr. S. N. Benham, Physician, First district, reported having attended 23 persons; paid 58 visits, and treated 4 office patients during the month of April.

Dr. E. Umbstaetter, Physician Second district, reports having treated 19 patients, made 54 visits and held 13 office consultations during the month.

Dr. I. Ward, Physician at the Farm, reported that nine cases were admitted to the hospital during the month, five of whom were discharged and seventeen are still under treatment.

Reports accepted and ordered to be filed.

Mr. Smythe moved that the Senators and members of Assembly from Allegheny county be instructed to oppose the passage of the bill now pending in the Legislature for the consolidation of the poor districts of Allegheny county, and that Mr. Fortune, Secretary, inform them of the action of the Board in this matter. Adopted.

WARRANTS ORDERED.

A number of bills amounting to $2,986 07, for supplies and seeds furnished to the Farm, were presented, approved and warrants ordered to be drawn for their payment.

The Secretary reported that the Monthly Committee have distributed $770 75 to the poor of the city during the month of April.

On motion adjourned.

RAILROAD.

The New Lease of the Pennsylvania Central.

The Committees of the Boards of Directors of the Pennsylvania road, and the Camden and Amboy road and its branches, having agreed upon a lease by which the control of the latter will be transferred to the former company, it is probable that at the meetings of the companies to-day the action will be ratified by their respective stockholders. The Pennsylvania Company proposes to take the property and franchises of the united companies and to assume all their obligations, paying ten per cent. per annum upon the capital stock of the companies. The united companies comprise the New Jersey Railroad and Transportation Company, the Camden and Amboy Railroad Company, the Philadelphia and Trenton Railroad Company and the Delaware and Raritan Canal Company. The leased lines; which will also pass under the control of the Pennsylvania Company, extend over nearly every county in the southern half of the State, and their management will be of great moment to the people of a large portion of the State.

The extensive improvements at Harsimus Cove, in Jersey City, which, although long contemplated, the united companies have not been bold enough to undertake, in view of the insecurity of their hold on the western business, will now be pushed forward. The Elevated Railway in Jersey City will be built, and the wide cove covered with freight and passenger buildings. It was the desire to have this great scheme carried out; the fear that the New Jersey Central would be leased by the Pennsylvania Company, and the doubt lest the National Railway Company should succeed by foreign aid in running an opposition line across the State, that first prompted the directors of the united companies to accede to the proposition to lease their lands. The result, while it will no doubt be favorable to the companies, cannot in any case diminish the profits of the stockholders, which have hitherto for several years stood at 10 per cent. per annum upon their investments.

THE COURTS.

U. S. District Court—Judge McCandless.

YESTERDAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

They had been selected from an extensive district, embracing forty-six counties. He then defined their duties, informing them of the law and also of the fact that they were to keep secret all that transpired in the Grand Jury Room. He then proceeded to read a written charge, defining the nature and jurisdiction of the District Court and the other U. S. Courts.

The Grand Jury and District-Attorney returned, and, as they were to be occupied all day, the Court was adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

A FATHER'S VENGEANCE.

A Little Child Ill-Treated—A Prisoner in Custody Attacked—Exciting Scene in the Mayor's Office—The Victim Severely Injured.

Yesterday afternoon, an exciting and rather unusual scene disturbed the equanimity of His Honor Mayor Brush. It occurred at the four o'clock hearing, at the time when the case of Jas. Williams was up for consideration. The accused had been arrested upon a charge of attempting to commit a rape upon the person of a little four year old daughter of Mr. John Drew, tavern keeper in the Diamond. It was alleged that he enticed the little girl into an outhouse on Sunday afternoon and made the attempt, when he was interrupted and escaped.

When the hearing was in progress, the defendant occupied a seat in front of the Mayor and the father and mother of the little girl were seated to the right. The man was identified by a neighbor woman who had seen him make the attempt and had raised the alarm. The little girl was then called upon and also identified him, as the man and proceeded to tell her story of how she had been enticed by him with presents of money and candy into the outhouse when he made the attempt.

Just at this point the father became very much excited, and before any one could divine his intentions, he picked up a spittoon and threw it at the prisoner. The missle struck the mark and laid the man senseless, with the blood flowing freely from a deep gash in his head. Mr. Drew was proceeding to throw a second time when the Mayor jumped up and held him.

A physician was at once sent for—the messenger happily overtaking Dr. Gross, on Fifth avenue. He came and together with Dr. Murdoch after an examination thought the skull was not broken, although the wound was a serious one.

The injured man received every attention and recovered after a time, but was unable to be moved and was provided with lodgings in the Mayor's private office until further can be determined of his condition to-day. He claimed to be from Baltimore and says he is innocent of the charge.

The child is a beautiful little girl, and one which none but the veriest villain could do harm. She told her story in a childish, innocent way, and positively identified Williams.

What disposition of the case will be made to-day is not known.

Reliable.

We have so repeatedly called attention to the excellence of the time-pieces manufactured by the United States Watch Company that seems almost a work of supererogation to call attention to the subject again. But we are reminded of the increasing popularity of these watches, by the fact that they are now the most popular of any for presentation, &c.—a fact which attests their worth more than words, and which induces us again to refer to them, and ask any of our readers who may wish to secure a reliable time-piece, to call upon W. G. Dunseath, No. 56 Fifth avenue, and invest in one of the United States Company's manufacture. We guarantee they will be satisfied.

Personal Recommendations.

We haven't the slightest hesitancy in recommending the merchant tailoring house of Messrs. William Hespenheide & Co., No. 50 Sixth street, for from personal knowledge we are satisfied that nowhere else in the city can our patrons be better supplied with clothing. Everything is well made, and will look well, and will be found to be exactly as represented. Young gentlemen who desire to make a good impression by their exterior, are sure to accomplish that object by purchasing their clothing at Hespenheide & Co.'s, No. 58 Sixth street, near Penn avenue.

"Oh the rarity
Of Christian charity
Under the Sun,"

was the song of Tom Hood. In these days in principle that sentiment is adopted by old smokers who have great difficulty in procuring a good article of tobacco for the gratification of their tastes. By going to Megraw's, No. 45 Ninth street, however, this difficulty may be avoided and a rare quality of the article obtained.

Messrs. B. C. & J. H. Sawyer.

For the past twelve months I have used almost exclusively, your "Barbers' Soap," and I cheerfully bear my witness to its superiority. It is far more pleasant than the highly scented French soaps, or the imitations that are so commonly used, and is much more durable and economical, either for shaving or for use in the bath. I am certain it only needs a fair trial to commend it to very general favor; besides being a home manufacture, it is a superior article that justly merits commendation.
